Comrade KIM IL SUNG Receives Delegation of General Federation of Syrian Workers' Trade Unions

Comrade Kim Il Sung received on July 8 the delegation of the General Federation of Syrian Workers' Trade Unions.

Present on the occasion were the members of the delegation headed by Mouhammad Mourad Aga, Vice-Chairman of the General Federation of Syrian Workers' Trade Unions.

Also present on the occasion was Jon Chang Chol, Chairman of the Central Committee of the General Federation of Trade Unions of Korea.

Comrade Kim Il Sung had a friendly talk with the guests.

Political Committee of Central Committee of Workers' Party of Korea

Decides to Pay Tribute to the Memory of the Late Comrade Kim Jong Tae, Chairman of Seoul City Committee of United Revolutionary Party

The Political Committee of the Central Committee of the Workers' Party of Korea adopted a decision on July 12 to pay tribute to the memory of the late Comrade Kim Jong Tae, Chairman of the Seoul City Committee of the United Revolutionary Party.

The decision said:

Comrade Kim Jong Tae, a revolutionary fighter of South Korea, was arrested while waging a vigorous struggle in the van of revolutionaries and patriots, upholding the great revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, for the national and social emancipation of the South Korean people and the independent unification of the fatherland, and was murdered by the enemy on July 10, 1969, to our sorrow.

Upon hearing the sad news that Comrade Kim Jong Tae, a South Korean revolutionary fighter, was murdered, the Political Committee, together with the entire Party members and working people, expresses deep condolence.

Pointing to the revolutionary activities of Comrade Kim Jong Tae and his immortal exploits in the struggle, the decision said:

From his early school days the late Comrade Kim Jong Tae instilled the anti-Japanese patriotic ideas into the minds of youths and students and fought against the colonial enslavement policy of the Japanese imperialists. After August 15, 1945, he energetically conducted revolutionary activities against the U.S. imperialist aggressors who crept into South Korea to take the place of Japanese imperialism, and their stooges, and organized and guided the mass uprising in the areas of North and South Kyongsang Provinces at the time of the heroic April Uprising of the South Korean people in 1960.

Especially, the Comrade played an important guiding role in founding the United Revolutionary Party, one of the major revolutionary organizations of South Korea, and further consolidating and developing it.

As one of the guiding personnel of this organization, he took the heavy duty of the Chairman of its Seoul City Committee and made a great contribution to firmly rallying workers, peasants, youths and students, intellectuals and other broad sections of the patriotic, democratic forces and organizing and mobilizing them in the struggle for freedom and liberation.

He also made an important service in arming the South Korean revolutionaries and patriots with the great idea of Juche of Comrade Kim Il Sung and promoting the national and class awakening of the masses of the people through the Revolutionary Front, the organ of the United Revolutionary Party, and its journal Chongmaek.

He did not cease his just struggle even after he was arrested by the enemy, and upheld to the last the lofty revolutionary constancy of a Korean Communist.

The late Comrade Kim Jong Tae was a true revolutionary soldier infinitely faithful to Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of the Korean revolution, and a paragon of the South Korean revolutionaries who inherited the glorious revolutionary traditions of the anti-Japanese armed struggle, the decision noted.

The Political Committee decided to pay the whole Party and the whole nation homage to the memory of the late Comrade Kim Jong Tae, a revolutionary fighter, who made immortal exploits in the building of a Marxist-Leninist party and the development of the revolutionary movement in South Korea and to mark off the period from July 13 to July 19, as a period of memori-

Awards Title of Hero of D.P.R.K. to the Late Comrade Kim Jong Tae

The Presidium of the Supreme People's Assembly of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea issued on July 12 a decree on awarding the title of Hero of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea to the late Comrade Kim Jong Tae.

The decree said that the late Comrade Kim Jong Tae, an indomitable revolutionary fighter of South Korea, performed heroic feats in the sacred revolutionary struggle for the South Korean revolution and the unification of the fatherland, holding aloft the revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of the 40 million Korean people.

He had waged an unflagging revolutionary struggle for the freedom and liberation of the people and the unification and independence of the fatherland from the first days of the occupation of South Korea by the U.S. imperialist aggressors and as one of the founders of the United Revolutionary Party guided by the great revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, he played an important, leading role in the work for expanding and consolidating the Party, the decree noted and went on:

He, assuming the heavy duty of the Chairman of the Seoul City Committee of the Party, formed various mass organizations including the "Fatherland Liberation Front" and the "National Liberation Front" along the strategic and tactical line on the South Korean revolution and the unification of the fatherland put forth by Comrade Kim Il Sung and made a great contribution to firmly uniting the broad masses of the people—workers, peasants, youth and students, intellectuals, etc.—and to organizing and mobilizing them to the struggle against the U.S. imperialist aggressors and their stooges.

He also published the Revolutionary Front, the organ of the United Revolutionary Party, and the journal Chongmaek and did an important service in arming the revolutionaries and patriots with the revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, a great Marxist-Leninist of our era, and enhancing the class and national awakening of the masses of the people.

Even after he was arrested by the enemy he unflinchingly fought to the last moment of his life and upheld to the last the lofty revolutionary constancy of a Korean Communist.

The late Comrade Kim Jong Tae was a revolutionary soldier boundlessly faithful to Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of the Korean people, and is a paragon of the South Korean revolutionaries who inherited the glorious revolutionary traditions of the anti-Japanese armed struggle.

The Presidium of the Supreme People's Assembly of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea awards to the late Comrade Kim Jong Tae the title of Hero of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, together with a Gold Star Medal and an Order of National Flag First Class, in high recognition of the heroic exploits made by him in the struggle for the South Korean revolution and the unification of the fatherland, the decree noted in conclusion.

"Premier's Speech Gives Us New Strength"

Feelings of Reverence of South Korean People for Premier Kim Il Sung Run High

Today the South Korean people are unanimous in their praise of the political and economic achievements scored and the powerful defence built in the northern half of the Republic under the outstanding leadership of Comrade Kim Il Sung, ever-victorious iron-willed brilliant commander and military strategist-genius.

As a result of the embodiment of the great self-defensive military line of Comrade Kim Il Sung and his brilliant military strategic lines, the northern half of the Republic is now possessed of an invincible defence power capable of beating off any aggression of the U.S. imperialists at a stroke.

That is why the South Korean people are expressing their feelings of boundless reverence for Comrade Kim Il Sung, saying that "Though the U.S. scoundrels indulge in tall talk with regard to new type weapons and nuclear weapons, they are powerless before the tactics of the great General Kim Il Sung."

Especially the South Korean people feel great national pride in the fact that the valorous People's Army men repeatedly humbled in the dust the pride of the U.S. imperialist aggressors hell bent on war provocation by capturing the U.S. imperialist armed spy ship "Pueblo" at the beginning of last year which was perpetrating espionage and hostile acts after intruding deep into the territorial waters of our country and bringing down on April 15 this year the U.S. imperialist spy plane "EC-121" that had intruded deep into the territorial air of our country.

The South Korean people say:

"Now that the U.S. scoundrels have had the 'Pueblo' captured and the large-size reconnaissance plane brought down, they cannot save their skins once they set their foot on land."

A soldier of the puppet army said as follows:

"The People's Army has punctured the arrogance of the Yanks. Though the scoundrels indulge in big talk, they are powerless before the People's Army. Indeed, the people in the northern half and the People's Army are stately and strong.

"I know well how great are the revolutionary ideas of independence, self-sustenance and self-defence of Premier Kim Il Sung."

A South Korean youth said:

"In fact, our nation has the history of 5,000 years. But never before in our history has there been such a proud People's Army.

"The army in the northern half has grown into a strong army. This is attributable to the very fact that it has such a great strategist as General Kim Il Sung as its Supreme Commander."

When their armed spy ship "Pueblo" was caught red-handed last year, the U.S. imperialists threatened our people by massing a large number of warships in the waters off the eastern coast of our country including the aircraft carrier "Enterprise" while hurling into South Korea their aggressive forces on a large scale.

But our people and the People's Army who are closely rallied as one man around Comrade Kim Il Sung, ever-victorious iron-willed brilliant commander, took a resolute stand without the slightest vacillation.

Comrade Kim Il Sung said as follows at the banquet given in honour of the 20th anniversary of the founding of the heroic Korean People's Army:

"We do not want war, but are never afraid of it. Our people and People's Army will return retaliation for the 'retaliation' of the U.S. imperialists, all-out war for all-out war. The U.S. imperialists must fully be aware that if they aggravate the situation and persistently take the road of war despite our warnings, they will suffer a heavier defeat this time."

The South Korean people who were greatly moved by the speech of the great Leader Comrade Kim Il Sung clarifying the resolute stand of our people, expressed their feelings as follows:

"Premier's speech gives us new strength.

"No matter how strong the U.S. scoundrels may be, we can defeat them.

"I have come to realize more clearly that the victory of the Korean people over such a strong enemy as the U.S. devils was attributable to the outstanding leadership of General Kim Il Sung."

Before the resolute stand of the Korean people the U.S. imperialists were brought to their knees and apologized to them and gave assurance that they would never commit such criminal acts in the future.

A South Korean inhabitant said with regard to this:

"It should be admitted that the might of the North is great for it has caught the 'Pueblo' which other countries could not do.

"It is true that the United States' failure to attain its aim lies in the fact that its aggressive nature has been exposed before the world people. But the more important fact is that the military might of the North has grown incomparably stronger than before, I think.

"This has proved to the world that the United States is not so strong.

"Indeed, General Kim Il Sung's art of command is splendid.

"I have come to realize that we can also surely win a victory if we fight U.S. imperialism under the leadership of General Kim Il Sung."

Another South Korean inhabitant said:

"Who is the famous general that has defeated the United States, the self-styled 'strongest' country in the world?

"He is none other than General Kim Il Sung.

"General Kim Il Sung is really the peerless patriot and iron-willed brilliant commander whom the Korean people boast of to the world.

"I am convinced that our country will surely be unified under the leadership of General Kim Il Sung.

"The only road for us to follow is the road indicated by General Kim Il Sung. There is no other road."

FROM COMRADE KIM IL SUNG'S REVOLUTIONARY ACTIVITIES DURING THE ANTI-JAPANESE ARMED STRUGGLE

Comrade KIM IL SUNG Returns Home in Triumph

The Soviet Army defeated fascist Germany in May 1945. Now the defeat of imperialist Japan in the Far East was near at hand.

As the war was nearing its end, the situation took a turn decisively favorable to the Korean revolution and the national liberation came just ahead of the Korean people as Comrade Kim Il Sung had envisaged scientifically.

Comrade Kim Il Sung mapped out a detailed strategic plan for switching the Korean People's Revolutionary Army over to the decisive battle against Japanese imperialism in keeping with the prevailing situation. The political and military information collected by the small units of the Korean People's Revolutionary Army through their hard struggle served as precious materials for victory in the general war for the liberation of Korea.

The units of the Korean People's Revolutionary Army made full preparations to join the large-scale modern warfare, having intensive combat training.

Comrade Kim Il Sung who had already elaborated on an operational plan for the final offensives against Japanese imperialism, ordered on August 9, 1945 the units of the Korean People's Revolutionary Army to give a decisive battle. At his order the units of the Korean People's Revolutionary Army marched into the homeland. The "impregnable defences" built up by the Japanese imperialists along the border collapsed like a house of cards.

The men of the Korean People's Revolutionary Army routing the enemy hordes for the liberation of their fatherland! Their movement was quick as lightning, their cry was like a clap of thunder and their foot was light as a feather.

They always spearheaded the attacks and made a breach for the units to advance at the risk of their lives.

It was at the time of the battle for the liberation of Sohsura. Sohsura was a stronghold of the Japanese imperialist aggressor forces. They put up a stiff resistance there counting on well-equipped defences. Three pillboxes on a hill-top harassed the advance of our army. Eight men of the Korean People's Revolutionary Army volunteered to silence them. They approached them braving the rain of bullets and blew them up with handgrenades. Thus a breach was made for their unit.

In the decisive fight for the liberation of the motherland, the units of the Korean People's Revolutionary Army displayed their might to the full in many battles to liberate towns and villages in the east coastal area under the brilliant command of Comrade Kim Il Sung.

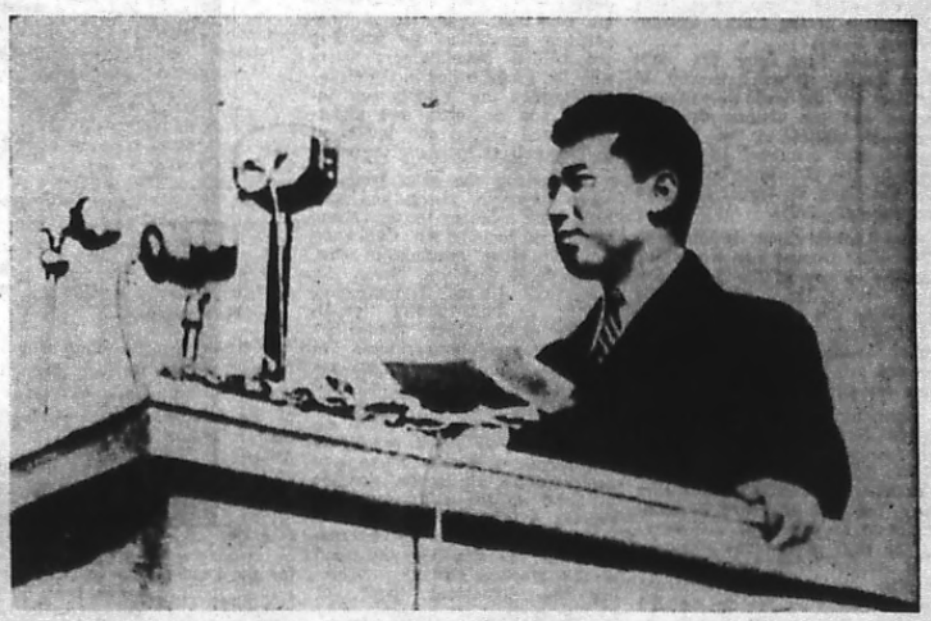
The Korean people were liberated from the 36-year-long colonial rule of Japanese imperialism. Everything under the sun seemed to dance in a salute to liberation. The Japanese imperialist aggressors who had lorded it over this land for 36 years were reduced to beggary and driven back to their den. This was the inevitable end of the aggressors.

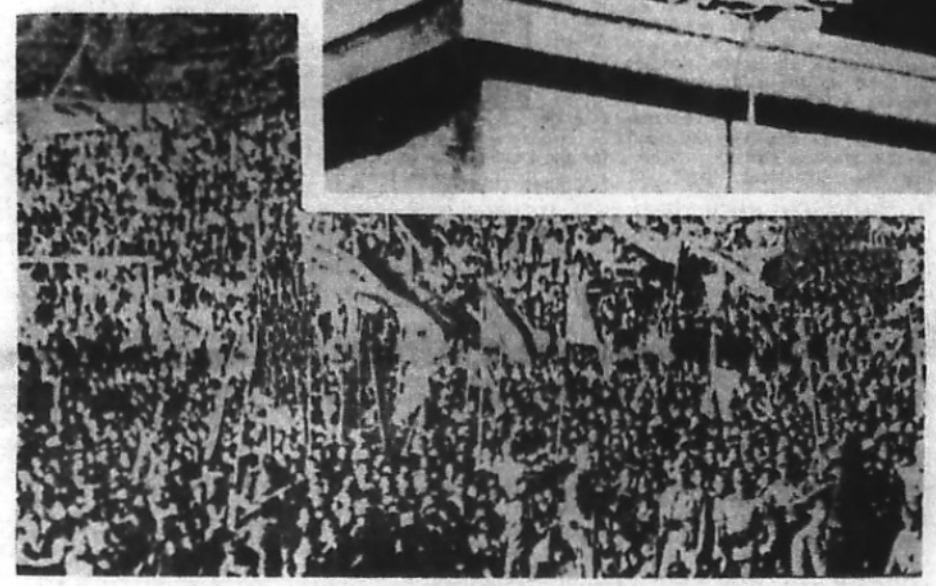
Comrade Kim Il Sung returned home in triumph leading the anti-Japanese fighters whom he personally trained.

The joy of the Korean people over the triumphal return of their Leader whom they had longed for knew no bounds.

The whole land of the 3,000-ri expanse from Mt. Baekdu to Mt. Hanra on Cheju Island was at one in its welcome to the triumphal return of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the sun of the nation. Shouts of people "Long live General Kim Il Sung!" and "Long live Korea's independence!" were heard on all sides.

General Kim Il Sung who defeated the enemy and freed the people from the colonial yoke! The great Leader Comrade Kim Il Sung who brought light and freedom to this land which had remained a living hell for 36 years! The Korean people who received their Leader found no proper words to express their happiness.





The Pyongyang city mass meeting in welcome of the triumphal return-home of Comrade Kim Il Sung

Upon his triumphal return-home Comrade Kim Il Sung, not minding about the fatigue of the 15-year-long arduous anti-Japanese armed struggle, organized and led the people to the struggle for victory in the revolution.

Everyday he worked to tackle complex tasks counting a minute or even a second. He seemed to have forgotten to go to meet his grandparents and relatives whom he had so much wished to see. He planned the future of the Korean revolution and discussed the state affairs with many comrades until late at night. He visited factories and villages to acquaint himself with their actual conditions and organize and mobilize the masses of the people to the building of a new state and a new life.

One day Comrade Kim Il Sung went to the Kangson Steel Plant by a car with his adjutant. A happy thought struck the adjutant. He believed that he would have the honour of accompanying Comrade Kim Il Sung to visit his home village.

There was the road to the Kangson Steel Plant in the direction of Mangyongdae, the native place of Comrade Kim Il Sung. Quite a time had gone since he was back in Pyongyang. But he had not yet been to Mangyongdae which was within a calling distance.

The fields in the early autumn garb stretched to Mangyongdae and hills clad in young pine-trees came in sight. He looked out of the car window. Deep recollections gripped him and a significant smile played on his face.

"My native place is as ever," he said, half to himself.

He seemed to be recalling the time when he was leaving his home village with a great aspiration.

About Mangyongdae, his native place, would he tell his men by campfire after the march during the anti-Japanese war.

Presently the car came to the crossing of the roads to Mangyongdae and Kangson. He told the driver to pull up the car and came out of it. And he said to his adjutant pointing in the direction of Mangyongdae:

...Mangyongdae lies over there. It's a good place... Go there in my place. You'll find it to your liking...

Feeling incredible, the adjutant only looked at him.

He said, lost in thought:

...It's twenty years since I left my home village... My old grandparents live there. Send them my best wishes. And tell them that since the country was liberated I'll shortly return home... Well, let us meet at this point tomorrow morning.

In a tearful voice, the adjutant said pleadingly: "May I suggest that you pay a short visit?"

Comrade Kim Il Sung looked at the adjutant a moment and said:

"No, not now... I'll drop in next time."

Leaving these words, he set out for the Kangson Steel Plant.

"He is a great man indeed!" the adjutant said to himself overcome with emotion, looking at the car fading away.

He must naturally have had a strong urge to visit his home village. But he who values the destiny of the fatherland above his life, had to meet the masses of workers who were eager to receive his teaching for tackling many revolutionary tasks before his visit to his dear home village and grandparents.

There was a Pyongyang city mass meeting in welcome of the triumphal return of Comrade Kim Il Sung at the public playground at the foot of the Moranbong Hill on October 14, 1945.

"General Kim Il Sung appears at the meeting!"

The whole city of Pyongyang was astir with this news.

Has there ever been such a happy news since the existence of the Moranbong Hill and Pyongyang? No.

Large crowds streamed to the playground from streets and suburban villages. Soon the meeting place, inside and out, was filled to overflowing with hundreds of thousands of people. The Moranbong Hill was also deluged with crowds.

At one p.m., when Comrade Kim Il Sung appeared at the meeting place, thunderous, enthusiastic cheers of manse burst forth, shaking the earth.

"Long live General Kim Il Sung!"

"Long live General Kim Il Sung!"

Reporting the warm welcome of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the then newspaper Pyongyang Minbo said: "Has Pyongyang with a long history of 4,000 years and a 400,000 population ever witnessed such a large turnout as today? Has it ever had such a significant meeting as today?... When General Kim Il Sung whom the Korean people adored and longed for most appeared at the meeting place, enthusiastic cheers rang out and all the crowds there were choked with tears of joy."

Comrade Kim Il Sung made a historic speech of his triumphal return at the meeting.

Concluding his speech gripping the hearts of all people, he chanted the slogan "Long live Korea's independence!" Another burst of cheers shook the meeting place.

That day he tendered his first greeting after his triumphal return to the people and visited Mangyongdae, his native place.

All people of Mangyongdae turned out to welcome him.

Here in Mangyongdae Comrade Kim Il Sung was born and grew up, and his parents and his father's younger brother who devoted themselves to the struggle for the restoration of the country lived. For this reason this village had suffered the cruel repression at the hands of the Japanese imperialist army and police. But that day the whole village seethed, bubbled with joy and excitement.

"Oh my darling, you're back at last. I know not whether I'm asleep or awake!"

His grandfather ran out barefooted. Tears rained down his face, too. Villagers also all shed tears of joy.

Comrade Kim Il Sung vigorously called the people to the construction of a new state, taking upon himself the destiny of the fatherland and the people.

The people confidently saw the bright future of new Korea in the road indicated by Comrade Kim Il Sung and were rallied ever closer around him.

Victory and glory were in store for the Korean people who had Comrade Kim Il Sung as their great Leader.

On the Death of Comrade Kim Jong Tae, Chairman of Seoul City Committee of United Revolutionary Party

Today our people pay the last homage to Comrade Kim Jong Tae, an indomitable revolutionary fighter, noted journalist and Chairman of the Seoul City Committee of the United Revolutionary Party.

Comrade Kim Jong Tae who had fought without sleeping or resting for the South Korean revolution and the historic cause of national unification for a long period, was murdered to our regret by the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi fascist hangmen on July 10, 1969.

The death of Comrade Kim Jong Tae who devoted his whole life for the victory of the South Korean revolution, wholeheatedly upholding the revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of the 40 million Korean people, is, indeed, a great loss for our people.

Born into a poor peasant family in Naengchon-dong, Kumho sub-county, Yongchon county, North Kyongsang Province, on November 24, 1926, Comrade Kim Jong Tae took the road of revolution in his early age and covered the path of arduous struggle.

In August 1944, he formed a reading circle against Japanese imperialism with Taegu as the centre and resolutely fought against the colonial enslavement education of Japanese imperialism, and right after August 15, 1945, he organized and guided the movement of youth and students against the occupation of South Korea by the U.S. imperialists and their policy of colonial enslavement.

Already from that time he, infinitely revering Comrade Kim Il Sung, the sun of our nation, assiduously read his brilliant works and held aloft the great revolutionary ideas of the Leader as the torch of struggle lighting darkness in South Korea.

After moving the theatre of struggle to schools where young students were concentrated, in July 1948, he engaged himself in educational work for many years on the platform of middle and high schools and universities to implant the great image of the Leader in the hearts of the rising generation and arm them with revolutionary consciousness.

He formed the "Chongmaek Society", a mass organization in May 1956 and gradually built up the foothold of his activities in the working class, rallying the people of all strata.

He, taking the post of guiding adviser of the North Kyongsang Provincial Labour Federation, founded Hanguk Rodong Shinmun to enhance the national and class consciousness of the working class and the masses of the people in the province and organized and guided the mass uprising of the people in the areas of Kyongsang provinces at the time of the April Uprising, 1960.

After the April Uprising, he took the road of underground revolutionary activities with a stauncher revolutionary stamina for the South Korean revolution and the cause of national unification.

He, concerned more about the suffering of the masses of the people groaning under the colonial rule of U.S. imperialism than about himself and his kith-and-kin, strove with his all energies to carry out the strategic and tactical line of Comrade Kim Il Sung on founding a revolutionary Marxist-Leninist party and building up a powerful revolutionary force in South Korea.

Even under the difficult conditions of South Korea where the freedom of the organization and activity of a revolutionary party is denied under the barbarous fascist terror rule of the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique, he, together with his comrades, organized a "preparatory committee" for founding the United Revolutionary Party with the nuclei tested in the struggle through the "Chongmaek Society" and so forth, and undertook and played an important guiding role in founding the party.

Overcoming the grim trials in which bayonets, prison and gallows were blocking the road ahead of him, he, together with Choi Yong Do and other comrades-in-arms, founded at last on March 15, 1964, the United Revolutionary Party, an underground revolutionary organization guided by the great revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader, and representing the interests of the workers, peasants and other exploited and oppressed masses of the people of South Korea and dedicated his all to the struggle to build up the party organization as a militant, dynamic vanguard of revolution till last moment of his life. On the road of this glorious struggle he, taking the important post of Chairman of the Seoul City Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, had energetically organized and guided the work of laying the mass basis of the party, while expanding and strengthening the party organization.

He took part in organizing various democratic organizations such as illegal "National Liberation Front" and "Fatherland Liberation Front" and mass organizations "Association of University Graduates in the 1960's," "Society for Study of New Culture," "Young Literary Men's Society", "Chongmaek Society," "Club of University Graduates," "Society for Study of Nationalism", "Christian Youth Association for Economic Affluence," "Buddhist Youth Society," "Donghak Society" and "Kyongwu Society" and strove to rally the masses of the people around the party and form an anti-U.S. national-salvation united front embracing broad patriotic, democratic forces.

Having realized the truth that revolution starts from awakening the masses, Comrade Kim Jong Tae directed particularly deep attention to the political and ideological work for awakening the workers, peasants and other masses of the people in a revolutionary way.

It was his firm belief that the revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Marxism-Leninism of our times, are the only correct ideas showing the most scientific road of the South Korean revolution and the country's unification. Therefore, he set it the first and foremost task in this work to firmly arm the revolutionaries and the people with the ideas of the Leader and rally them closely around the Leader.

Under the circumstances of the grim struggle in which the fascist suppression and while terror by the enemy were rampant, he had always established the habit of studying the Selected Works of Kim Il Sung and his other works and biography among the party members, and brought them to deeply grasp the great idea of Juche of the Leader and his immortal revolutionary history and the sagacity of his leadership and his lofty virtues.

Comrade Kim Jong Tae who cherished in mind the ardent feeling of singlehearted reverence for the Leader regarded it as the loftiest trait and greatest happiness of a revolutionary to remain loyal to the Leader, infinitely revered Comrade Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader, as the only centre of the political and ideological unity of the 40 million Korean people, as the great Leader who fought for fifteen years against the brigandish Japanese imperialists and won victory, and founded the ever-victorious Workers' Party of Korea and the first state of proletarian dictatorship in this land, ushering in the shining, new historic era of socialism and communism, and as the brilliant Leader who founded the revolutionary theories of Juche in the Korean revolution and brightly illumines the road ahead of the South Korean revolution, and educated the revolutionaries and people in infinite loyalty to the Leader.

He, deeply aware of the great role of revolutionary publications in the political propaganda activities of the party, participated in the founding of the Revolutionary Front, the organ of the United Revolutionary Party, and the journal Chongmaek and conducted revolutionary publishing and literary activities.

He was not only one of the publishers and editors of revolutionary publications, but a prominent author. He wrote the "Inaugural Article" of Chongmaek and many revolutionary political essays such as "For the Progress of History," "Is the Spirit of April 19 Alive?" and through his fiery writings ardently appealed to the masses of the people to the struggle against the colonial fascist rule of the U.S. imperialists and their stooges and establish independency and subjecthood of the nation.

The passionate literary activity of the Comrade, a revolutionary political essayist served as a powerful weapon in increasing the combat strength of the United Revolutionary Party and rousing the masses of the people in an anti-U.S. national-salvation struggle and a dagger piercing the hearts of the aggressors and traitors to the nation.

Through his versatile political propaganda activities, Comrade Kim Jong Tae instilled into the hearts of the masses of the people groping in darkness the revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung lighting the path of freedom and liberation and rallied them around the Leader as firm as a rock.

At the same time he, while closely linking the work of accumulating and reinforcing the revolutionary forces with the mass struggle, skillfully organized and guided the anti-U.S. national-salvation struggle of workers, peasants, youth and students and intellectuals and people of all other strata and further awakened and steeled the masses in the storm of the struggle.

He prepared the masses for a decisive struggle for knocking down the U.S. imperialists and their stooges, combining the struggle of all forms—political struggle with economic struggle, legal struggle with illegal struggle, violent struggle with non-violent struggle—to suit the subjective and objective situation obtaining in South Korea.

Particularly, he organized and carried on bold activities for obtaining weapons and training tactical cadres in preparation for the decisive hour of destroying the bastion of colonial rule of the enemy by violent method.

In the trials of the arduous struggle he prepared himself as more seasoned and tempered professional revolutionary and revolutionized a large number of comrades and reared them as fine revolutionary pivots.

He who hewed the path of the bloody struggle for a long period like a phoenix was unfortunately arrested by the enemy in July 1968.

He, however, did never bring down the flag of the revolution.

He courageously waged a court struggle and prison-breaking struggle, ceaselessly fighting the enemy with fortitude, turning the prison and "court" into new arenas of struggle, and sternly condemned the aggressors and traitors, frustrating the repeated murderous "trials" by the enemy.

In the whole period of the prison struggle, he did not bend the lofty principle of a Korean Communist and determinedly resisted the enemy, biting his tongue, even at the moment of falling unconscious due to the brutal torture by the enemy, bearing deep in mind the teaching of the Leader that those who make revolution must never mar their political life, even though their physical life may die.

Seized with uneasiness and fear in face of the revolutionary principle of the Comrade who would rather die than be bent, the fascist hangmen passed upon him a "death sentence" on January 25, 1969, under the notorious "national security law" and "anti-communist law."

But he, deeply convinced of the justness of his cause, never showed pessimism before the enemy, and he staunchly waged the protest struggle, bitterly denouncing the crimes of the blackest dye of the enemy.

Further discomfited by this, the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi traitors confirmed the "death sentence" upon him, denying him even the right of appeal, and committed the dastardly barbarity of murdering him, when the anti-U.S. national-salvation struggle of the students and people raged violently in South Korea recently which threw a scare into them.

The heart of Kim Jong Tae, Chairman of the Seoul City Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, which had pulsated high with revolutionary passion ceased to beat.

He, to our deep regret, ended his lofty life of a revolutionary at the age of 44, before seeing the days of the victory of the South Korean revolution and unification of the fatherland for which he fought, shedding blood, in his life time.

But his life was a brilliant life of a Communist burning like a torch and never going out on the road of revolution.

His whole life is, indeed, a true paragon for all the South Korean revolutionaries for his absolute respect for and boundless loyalty to Comrade Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader and the great sun of our nation, and for the immortal exploits he performed for the revolution, upholding the great revolutionary ideas of the Leader.

Comrade Kim Jong Tae made a great contribution to forming the powerful main force of revolution by building up a Marxist-Leninist party in South Korea and rallying workers and peasants around it and to steadily expanding and developing the revolutionary movement.

He was a true revolutionary soldier of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader, who remained boundlessly faithful to the Leader with single devotion, dedicating himself and the whole family to revolution, and an ardent Communist who built up a revolutionary party and organized and mobilized skillfully the masses of the people in the anti-U.S. national-salvation struggle by embodying the great revolutionary ideas of the Leader in practical activities.

He was an ardent patriot who fought against the colonial ruling system of the U.S. imperialists imposed upon South Korea and for the national and social emancipation of the workers, peasants and the masses of the people of other strata and a staunch revolutionary who inspired his comrades in struggle, pulling through indescribable hardships with his own practical examples.

He was an indomitable fighter who was uncompromising toward the enemy and who possessed warm revolutionary comradeship and strong will, unbending fighting spirit and revolutionary optimism.

He, indeed, well showed through his whole life how a soldier of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader, should live and fight for the Party and the Leader, for the fatherland and the people.

Entire Korean People Will Inflict Hundred-fold, Thousand-fold Revenge upon U.S. Imperialists and Their Stooges for Brutal Murder of Kim Jong Tae

Solemn Memorial Service Held for the Late Comrade Kim Jong Tae, Chairman of Seoul City Committee of United Revolutionary Party

That is why the entire Korean people highly praised his lofty fighting exploits and struggled for his unconditional and immediate release, exposing and denouncing the criminal act of the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique who illegally arrested and imprisoned him.

The revolutionary people throughout the world also merged their voices into one in denouncing the enemy and struggled in demand of his release, and the Executive Committee of the International Organization of Journalists decided to award him "International Prize of Journalist" highly praising his revolutionary exploits and literary activity for the South Korean revolution and the cause of the unification of the fatherland.

But the U.S. imperialist aggressors and the Pak Jung Hi fascist hangmen murdered him in the end, defying the powerful protest and denunciation by the entire Korean people and the world people.

If the U.S. imperialists and their stooges dare murder one revolutionary, hundreds of, thousands of new revolutionaries and patriots will succeed him and turn out to a decisive battle for the South Korean revolution.

With no desperate effort can the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique strangulate the growing revolutionary forces in South Korea or bridge over the crisis of their crumbling colonial rule.

The murder of Comrade Kim Jong Tae is now evoking among the entire North and South Korean people fierce hatred and burning revengeful thought against the U.S. imperialist wild beasts and the Pak Jung Hi fascist hangmen.

The revolutionaries and entire people of South Korea are waging more vigorously the anti-U.S. national-salvation struggle of all forms in towns and villages, underground and in mountains, renewing their rock-firm determination to explode the powder magazine of revolution in South Korea sooner or later carrying forward the cause left unfinished by Comrade Kim Jong Tae.

The people in the northern half of the Republic, deeply mourning over the death of Comrade Kim Jong Tae, are supporting more powerfully the South Korean people in their revolutionary struggle and raising higher the flames of the great revolutionary upsurge in all fields of economic construction and defence upbuilding, with the resolve to avenge the Comrade on the enemy.

Invincible is the revolutionary cause of the Korean people who are under the outstanding leadership of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader, and the U.S. imperialists and their stooges will certainly meet their doom.

The late Comrade Kim Jong Tae!

Faithful soldier of the Leader, who lived the whole life through a struggle!

You shed blood never in vain.

Your noble name and the immortal feats you accomplished by shedding blood will be recorded in block letters in the glorious revolutionary history of our people and your lofty revolutionary spirit will live forever in the hearts of our people.

Comrade!

May you sleep in peace!

July 12, 1969

Comrade Kim Jong Tae, Chairman of the Seoul City Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, an indomitable revolutionary fighter, ardent patriot and prominent journalist, who fought vigorously to achieve the historic cause of the South Korean revolution and the country's unification was brutally killed by the murderous U.S. imperialists, the sworn enemy of our people, and the Pak Jung Hi fascist hangmen, their faithful running dogs.

Upon hearing the sad news the entire working people of our country are renewing their fighting will to inflict a hundred-fold, thousand-fold revenge upon the enemy for the cruel murder of Comrade Kim Jong Tae, with surging indignation and bitter hatred against the enemy.

A solemn memorial service for the late Comrade Kim Jong Tae, Chairman of the Seoul City Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, was held on the afternoon of July 13 in Pyongyang, the capital of revolution.

A black-framed portrait of the late Comrade Kim Jong Tae, an indomitable revolutionary fighter, who remained infinitely loyal to the respected and beloved Leader Comrade Kim Il Sung to the last moment of his life was hung on the background of the platform, and were under it a shining Gold Star Medal awarded to the Hero of the Republic and an Order of National Flag First Class symbolic of his brilliant life and immortal revolutionary exploits.

A wreath personally sent by Comrade Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader of the 40 million Korean people, in memory of Comrade Kim Jong Tae was placed under the portrait of the deceased.

Also placed on the platform were a wreath sent by the Central Committee of the Workers' Party of Korea and a wreath sent in the joint name of the Presidium of the Supreme People's Assembly and the Cabinet of the Republic and wreaths sent by political parties and public organizations and higher educational institutions, in memory of Comrade Kim Jong Tae.

Placed there was a wreath sent by the diplomatic corps in Pyongyang.

The Pyongyang Grand Theatre, the memorial service place, was packed with functionaries of the Party and government organs and public organizations, labour innovators and servicemen in the city. The theatre was pervaded with deep sorrow over the death of Comrade Kim Jong Tae, the revolutionary soldier true to the Leader, and with a burning hatred for the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi fascist hangmen.

The memorial service was attended by Comrades Kim Il and Kim Gwang Hyop and other responsible functionaries of the Party and government organs and public organizations.

Present there were representatives of the United Revolutionary Party who came to pay homage to Comrade Kim Jong Tae.

Also present were diplomatic representatives and staff members of foreign embassies in Pyongyang.

Comrade Pak Sung Chul, Member of the Political Committee of the Central Committee of the Workers' Party of Korea and Vice-Premier of the Cabinet, made a memorial address.

He said that now the entire Korean people are unable to repress deep sorrow over the loss of Comrade Kim Jong Tae, a proud son of the fatherland and an indomitable revolutionary fighter faithful to the Leader, and a burning hatred for the enemy.

He dwelt on the precious exploits Comrade Kim Jong Tae performed in the revolutionary struggle for accomplishing the South Korean revolution and his brilliant revolutionary activities, and continued:

Comrade Kim Il Sung earnestly taught us in the early days that those who make revolution must have the revolutionary creed that they "will not mar their political life, even though their physical life may die."

Comrade Kim Jong Tae was a true revolutionary soldier of the Leader who, bearing deep in mind these words of the Leader, remained infinitely loyal to the Leader to the last moment of his life for the victory of the South Korean revolution and the unification of the fatherland, and an ardent patriot and Communist who revolutionized his whole family and skillfully organized and mobilized the broad masses of the people in the anti-U.S. national-salvation struggle.

He was an indomitable fighter who struggled always with a firm conviction in sure victory and unbending fighting spirit even when grim trials befell him and a staunch revolutionary who was full of an uncompromizing fighting spirit against the enemy and revolutionary comradeship and revolutionary optimism about the future.

The speaker stressed that the precious blood shed by Comrade Kim Jong Tae will not be vain and his lofty revolutionary spirit will live long in the hearts of our people. His glorious life is a brilliant model and paragon for the South Korean revolutionaries and patriots who are fighting for freedom and liberation and the unification of the country.

He underscored that with no amount of manoeuvres, can the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique save the tottering colonial rule from its crisis or extinguish the flame of the anti-U.S. national-salvation struggle of the South Korean people flaring up like a prairie fire. He also emphasized that the people of the northern half of the Republic with a bitter hatred for the enemy will further consolidate our revolutionary base and do everything in their power to assists the fighting people of South Korea.

He was followed by the representative of the United Revolutionary Party.

He said that the revolutionary spirit implanted by Comrade Kim Jong Tae, an indomitable revolutionary fighter, will live for good in our hearts with a formidable vitality and it will rouse the masses of the people to the anti-U.S. national-salvation struggle, the strong revolutionary storm, and continued:

Comrade Kim Jong Tae who showed us the lofty spiritual world and communist traits of a revolutionary, is not dead, and the name of Comrade Kim Jong Tae who dedicated the most precious and beautiful in human life to the revolution, will shine forever in the annals of the fatherland together with the banner of the United Revolutionary Party.

He was infinitely loyal to Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of our people, peerless patriot of our nation and outstanding Marxist-Leninist.

The great image of the Leader and his invincible revolutionary ideas were indelibly engraved on his heart and brain and the prestige and ideas of the Leader were absolute to him all the time. He regarded it as the iron rule of his life and the primary demand of revolutionary activities to arm with the revolutionary ideas of the Leader and he carried this rule and demand into practice.

Our Leader Comrade Kim Il Sung was, indeed, the eternal symbol of the victory of revolution and the bright sun to him.

He constantly reared and trained his revolutionary comrades as fighters faithful to Comrade Kim Il Sung, the Leader of revolution, by enhancing the prestige of the Leader and making absolute the revolutionary ideas of the Leader among them.

The enemy is desperately trying to stamp out our lofty revolutionary cause by robbing us of our dear Comrade. But thousands nay tens of thousands of new Kim Jong Tae will turn out in the revolution, mercilessly wipe out the enemy and win victory in the revolution.

Following the example shown by him, we will firmly arm ourselves with the revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of the 40 million Korean people, peerless patriot, national hero, ever-victorious iron-willed brilliant commander and one of the outstanding leaders of the international communist and working-class movements, and become the true revolutionary fighters infinitely and single-heartedly faithful to the Leader.

We will overcome whatever hardships like a phoenix and raise higher the red banner of the revolution in South Korea, more resolutely upholding the revolutionary ideas of the Leader.

Then the representatives of workers, agricultural working people, students and women delivered memorial addresses.

The memorial service for Comrade Kim Jong Tae, Chairman of the Seoul City Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, was held solemnly in Pyongyang

A Visit to the Fatherland Liberation War Memorial

Heroes' Hall

The visitors now come to the Heroes' hall, looking back on the hard yet glorious days of the Fatherland Liberation War.

On show in this hall are photographs of 533 Heroes of the Republic who rendered distinguished services by displaying peerless courage and self-sacrifice in the three-year-long Fatherland Liberation War in which the U.S. imperialist aggressors sustained a disgraceful defeat, and materials on their heroic struggle and personal effects.

The visitors pause before a big photograph showing Comrade Kim Il Sung, who always leads our people to victory, happiness and prosperity, among Heroes with a broad smile.

They recall a passage of the words uttered by the Premier at the meeting of Heroes and model combatants held in 1953:

"By blocking the fire-spitting loopholes of the enemy's pillboxes with bodies at the critical moment of the battle and plunging yourselves into danger not afraid of death to wipe out the enemy, you not only carried out your battle tasks with honour but also showed the living example of heroism and patriotism, the loftiest qualities of our people, and demonstrated the indomitable will of our people."

Never in history has there been such a bitter war as the Korean war.

The two-year-old Korean People's Army had to fight against the U.S. imperialists who had bragged of their being the "strongest" in the world and troops of their 15 satellites.

No matter how brutal methods rare in the war history the enemies might resort to, they could not dampen the unyielding fighting will of the fighters of the People's Army who were up in the just war for the freedom and independence of the fatherland in response to the call of Comrade Supreme Commander.

Bust of Hero Kang Ho Yong

The hero-fighters of our People's Army, continuers of the glorious revolutionary traditions of the anti-Japanese armed struggle, readily blocked the loophole of the enemy's pillbox with blood-boiling youthful hearts shouting at the top of their voice "Long live General Kim Il Sung!" They hit at the enemy by rolling down rocks when ammunitions were gone and flew into the enemy positions to become themselves bombs when they could not find even rocks. Indeed, they fought like a phoenix. They thus defended every hill of the fatherland and every inch of its soil.

The visitors pause before the bust of the indomitable fighter Hero Kang Ho Yong. They see sparks of hatred for the enemy in his eyes. A cry "Let's fight the enemy even if we die a thousand and one times" seems to be ringing out of the hot heart of the Hero with a handgrenade between his teeth.

One day in February 1951 when squad leader Kang Ho Yong was hitting back the 19th attack of the enemy on the Kamak-bong hill, he got serious wounds in both legs and both hands and lapsed into unconsciousness.

When his comrades-in-arms were going to send him to the hospital in the rear giving him the first aid, he came to himself.

He said to his comrades-in-arms: "If you love me, let me lie here quietly. It is tantamount to yielding this hill to the enemy for a few men to carry me to the hospital. Don't mind me and go and take up your positions. The enemies are just coming up the hill now...."

Squad leader Kang Ho Yong stretched out his left hand to grasp a handgrenade on the jaw of the trench clenching his teeth. But he failed. He could not use his fingers freely. He tried again and again and succeeded in grasping a handgrenade. He raised his head. His face shone with an unusual determination.

He cried at the top of his voice: "Long live General Kim Il Sung!" and "Long live the Workers' Party of Korea!"

Hero Kang Ho Yong rolled down the hill with a handgrenade between his teeth. A batch of enemy soldiers fell with a terrible explosion.

The heroic death of Hero Kang Ho Yong struck chill into the hearts of the enemy like a powerful and formidable bomb.

The fighters of the Kamak-bong hill came out in the decisive battle with a burning hatred for the enemy.

At this moment a blue signal shot flew up into the glowing evening sky. There followed hill-shaking booms of artillery pieces telling of the start of the general offensive of the division. The enemy began to run away, leaving behind heaps of bodies.

The following explanation of the guide touches the hearts of visitors:

"When mother of Hero Kang Ho Yong visited the Fatherland Liberation War Memorial, she, looking back on the bitter past when the Korean people were stateless and she could not afford to feed him on even millet, let her son go bare-footed even in the cold winter and hired him out as a shepherd of a cruel Japanese and as a work hand of a landlord, said: 'You my dear son Ho Yong, have died the death of a hero. You fought well for the sake of the country as befitting the soldier of the Leader and a member of the glorious Workers' Party of Korea. I your mother don't shed tears of sorrow over your death.'

"Hero Kang Ho Yong who fought heroically to defend his motherland devoting his life and youth left our side. But his lofty spirit will live in our hearts for good and his immortal exploits, along with his lofty spirit, will be transmitted from generation to generation."

What strikes the visitors' eyes are the ragged hemp clothes Hero Kang Ho Yong wore when shepherding and his tommygun sent by his comrades-in-arms to Marshal Kim Il Sung conveying his unfading exploits. The visitors are reluctant to turn their gaze off the photograph of Hero Kang Ho Yong.

Now before their eyes appears the picture of Hero Li Dae Hun.

There was the most bloody battle on Wolmi Island ever waged in the history of wars.

In September 1950 the 50,000-odd-strong enemy force started the Inchon landing operations with more than 300 warships and other vessels under cover of over 1,000 planes.

At the time a coastal battery with four guns was defending the island, the gateway to Inchon.

The enemy rained more than four bombs or shells on this small island per square metre.

On the day when the last death battle took place only one gun was left.

Our fighters showered the enemy with shells of revenge, crying:

"Let us not allow the U.S. imperialist aggressors to set their blood-stained foot on the sacred soil of the fatherland! Let's fight to the last man!"

When the gun was out of use, they destroyed the enemy tanks with anti-tank grenades and when ammunitions were gone they fought a hand-to-hand battle.

That day the senior staff received a short wireless message from the radio girl on Wolmi Island: "Nineteen enemy destroyers, guard boats and landing craft sunk or damaged. Now in a countercharge. The charge is led by battery commander Li Dae Hun."

The gunners of the coastal battery faithful to the Leader like the anti-Japanese guerillas defended the soil of the fatherland to the last drop of their blood and died a heroic death.

Lots of named and unnamed Heroes rendered distinguished services in the bitter Fatherland Liberation War.

Heroes Kim Chang Gol and Li Su Bok blocked the enemy gun muzzle with their blood-boiling hearts for the victory of their units. Hero Kim Gi Ok shot down 11 enemy planes in more than 30 air battles. Hero-tank hunters destroyed many enemy tanks with mines. Hero An Hak Ryong repulsed the 13 attacks of the enemy single-handed.

The visitors pause long before the picture of Hero Kim Song Jin.

In January 1953 the enemy was building up his forces on Hill 565.7 despite their repeated defeats.

Our army had to baffle the enemy's attempt before he reinforced his forces.

Hero Kim Song Jin took part in the storming of Hill 565.7.

He crawled to the fire-spitting heavy machinegun emplacement of the enemy with the last anti-tank grenade in his hand. He threw the grenade at the emplacement. The enemy gun stopped firing with an explosion.

But when his company went over to charge shouting manse (hurrah), the gun again began to spit fire madly. Every second counted for our army. Hero Kim Song Jin dashed like a shot towards the firing gun muzzle and blocked it with his body.

When his comrades-in-arms ran over to him, he lay unconscious. Eleven bullets went through his left breast. But he miraculously came to life and is now standing guard over the defence line of the fatherland.

The visitors are deeply moved by the profound care of Supreme Commander Comrade Kim Il Sung shown for bringing him to life.

Reported that Hero Kim Song Jin got wounds by blocking the enemy gun muzzle with his body, Comrade Kim Il Sung showed much care for bringing him to life. He often inquired in detail about his condition by telephone. He sent competent army surgeons to cure his wounds. He also dispatched personnel to carry him medicines and saw to it that one of them looked after him until he left the hospital.

When Kim Song Jin left the hospital Comrade Kim Il Sung called him to meet and know about his health and directed profound concern to him.

The visitors feel deep in their hearts the warm solicitude of the great fatherly Leader who shared his fate with servicemen and the people in the hard days of the war and treasured them.

They proceed to the next hall renewing their resolve to fight for the Party and the Leader with a high honour of being his soldiers.

A Visit to a Drill Ground of Worker-Peasant Red Militiamen

Worker-Peasant Red Militiamen of the co-op farm where Comrade Li Jong Rin works are engaged in farming under the slogan "a hammer and a sickle in one hand and a rifle in the other." They are also good at combat training.

Some time ago I went to see these militiamen at drill.

Seen on the drill ground were militant slogans: "Let's guard with lives the Party Central Committee headed by Comrade Kim Il Sung!" and "Let's wipe out to the last man the U.S. imperialist aggressors, the mortal enemy of the Korean people!"

Li Gon Pil, one of commanding personnel of the militia unit, accompanied me. He said that the militiamen here are all good at their jobs and drill.

Last year they got excellent marks in a field firing.

They were at hard drill to attain good results this year, too, when I got to their drill ground.

Words of command rang up and down the drill ground. Militiamen in fighting trim jumped into the trenches, ran with a stoop and took up their positions for attack. Their movements were quite nimble.

Seen among them were girls.

The commander of the unit said:

Girls do training as well as men.

Wu Gyong Ok, whose father died in action during the last Fatherland Liberation War, always takes an active part in drill in a spirit of inflicting revenge upon the enemy U.S. imperialists as a continuer of the revolutionary cause her father left unfinished.

Last year there was a forced march. She, young as she was, participated in the long-distance forced march overcoming difficulties under hard and complex conditions.

At last, the attacking orders came from the commander. Militiamen shot out of the trenches with sharp bayonets fixed.

They rushed towards the "enemy" positions under a covering fire.

The "enemy" put up a stiff resistance with their heavy and light machine-guns.

But they closed in upon the "enemy" position getting over obstacles with a resolve to inflict a hundred-fold nay a thousand-fold revenge upon the enemy.

The "enemy" concentrated fire upon them. But their attack did not stop.

Wu Gyong Ok neared the madly fire-spitting "enemy" pillbox by a roundabout way and rained handgrenades of revenge upon it. It was blown up with a terrible explosion.

At charge orders, they rushed into the "enemy" positions like a tiger. Their bayonets were glittering. The enemy fell, screaming.

Cheers of manse (hurrah) shook the hill.

The hill was captured but the battle did not end.

They were in hot pursuit of the fleeing enemy, full of a determination to wipe out the enemies to the last man.

Really reliable were Worker-Peasant Red Militiamen fostering a gigantic strength capable of matching a hundred foes each under the atmosphere of an actual battle.

Wu Gyong Ok who ran into the "enemy" position like a phoenix at the head said:

...Should the sworn enemy U.S. imperialist aggressors dare to attack us again recklessly they will gain nothing but corpse and death from it...

She who was holding tightly a rifle in her hand, was full of self-confidence.

All Red Militiamen here shared her feeling. Their faces were bright with a firm determination to crush the aggressors at a stroke whenever and wherever they attack us. The sun slanted to the western sky. They summed up their day's combat drill and came down the hill in high spirits.

We're Worker-Peasant Red Militiamen of the Republic,
And reliable sons and daughters reared by the Workers' Party.
We guard the Party and the Leader with lives
And defend the gains of socialism...

Their ringing chorus echoed far and wide through hills dyed with sunset glow.

UN Flag Usurped by U.S. Imperialism for Its Aggressive War in Korea

It is the robberish worn-out artifice of the U.S. imperialists to use the signboard of the United Nations for the execution of their policy of aggression and war.

The U.S. imperialists acted just in this way in Korea.

To usurp the signboard of the United Nations in unleashing the aggressive war against the Democratic People's Republic of Korea on June 25, 1950 was one of the basic lines of the American imperialists already adopted beforehand.

This preparation was made in strict secrecy at the U.S. State Department.

John Hickerson, the then U.S. Assistant Secretary of State for the U.N. Affairs, revealed this in his testimony at the U.S. Senate Appropriations Committee on June 5, 1951. He remarked that, in fact, the State Department had already before the start of the Korean war "decided to take this question to the United Nations." And he said:

"We knew in general what we were going to say" and "We had drawn up the skeleton of a resolution." (I.F. Stone, Hidden History of the Korean War, New York, 1952.)

On the basis of such preparations, the U.S. imperialists made an emergency telephone call to the U.N. Secretary-General at 3 o'clock at dawn on June 25 and pressed him to call a meeting of the U.N. Security Council and forced the meeting to fabricate an illegal "resolution" branding the Democratic People's Republic of Korea as an "aggressor."

The only data the U.S. imperialists could submit to the U.N. Security Council for discussion were telegrams sent from the U.S. ambassador in Seoul and the "U.N. Commission on Korea," a tool for U.S. imperialist aggression. The telegrams were packed with fabricated facts turning black into white.

This was all the "evidence" they had. No more data were submitted for evidence, nor did they have any other. Of course, there was no confirmation on the authenticity of the telegrams. They were so ambiguous that even John Prett, the then director of the Information Board of the British government, said in a complaining tone, according to the August 17, 1951 issue of Peace News: Their "resolution" was adopted on the basis of the telegrams which were ambiguous as to which side started the war. They did not even show the texts of the telegrams from Seoul.

For all this, they dared to give topsy-turvy definition on an "aggressor." What a preposterous and shameful forgery!

On June 27 the United Nations cooked up a "resolution" on permitting the U.S. imperialists and their satellites to stage an armed invasion of Korea.

It goes without saying that the "resolution" was an illegal one fabricated in wanton violation of Paragraph 7, Article 2 of the U.N. Charter stipulating that the organization shall not intervene in matters within the domestic jurisdiction of any state, of Article 32 of the Charter providing for the participation of the concerned party in the decision of a dispute and of Paragraph 3, Article 27 of the Charter stipulating that the resolution of the Security Council can be adopted only with the unanimous approval of its five permanent members.

Besides, the "resolution" was but an ex post facto approval of the U.S. imperialists' armed invasion of Korea.

It was at 12:00 June 27 that the then U.S. imperialists' war boss Truman ordered the U.S. imperialist aggressor troops to start an armed intervention in Korea. However, the session of the U.N. Security Council at which the armed intervention of the U.S. imperialists was approved met at 15:15 that day.

Such is the background of the armed intervention the U.S. imperialist aggressors committed against Korea under the pretext of "U.N. police action."

The homicidal fiend MacArthur said that "the U.S. forces had been in action 12 hours before the U.N. resolution was adopted". (From MacArthur's testimony made before a public hearing at the U.S. Senate in 1951.)

The U.S. imperialist aggressors took another step: On July 7 they forced the U.N. Security Council to adopt another illegal "resolution" on calling their aggressive army and the troops of their satellites they had hurled into the aggression against Korea the "U.N. forces" and appointed the murderer of the Asian people MacArthur the so-called "commander of the U.N. forces."

It was borne out plainly by the following testimony made by the murderer MacArthur who acted as the "commander of the U.N. forces":

"My relationship with the United Nations was only quite nominal. Everything I did was controlled entirely by the Joint Chiefs of Staff... In short, I had nothing to do with the U.N. in whatever form." (From the murderer MacArthur's testimony at the U.S. Senate in 1951.)

Clark who succeeded the murderer MacArthur as the "commander of the U.N. forces" had this to say: "I was the commander of the U.N. forces in Korea, and I don't recall getting orders in whatever form from the United Nations during the entire war."

In the whole course of the Korean war (and later, too) the U.S. imperialist aggressors had no contacts with the U.N. in appointing the "commander" of their army, organizing the army and directing its operations.

The "U.N. forces" which committed immeasurable criminal acts against the Korean people in the three-year-long war were, in fact, the U.S. imperialist forces.

No wonder that a U.S. Republican representative remarked in a reproachful term: U.S. armed forces accounted for 99.2 per cent of the "U.N." air force, 83.8 per cent of its navy and 88 per cent of its ground force, when the South Korean forces are excluded from it. It is despicable to attach the label of "U.N. forces" to such an army and it is meant to deceive the American citizens. (Washington, Dec. 1, 1951, UP.)

William Powell, once being a U.N. Headquarters spokesman, stated that it is wrong to call the United States troops in Korea the "United Nations forces"... It is incorrect to call the U.S. Command in Korea the "United Nations Command." (Asahi Evening News, Nov. 5, 1966.)

Like this the U.N. had been reduced to a cheap tool for U.S. imperialist aggression against Korea both nominally and virtually and became a belligerent party of the aggressive war against the Korean people.

This wrote a most shameful and dirty page in the history of the U.N.

Even after the ceasefire the U.S. imperialist aggressor troops keep occupying South Korea under the U.N. signboard and are scheming in every way to use again the signboard of the U.N. in provoking another war in Korea.

This is a vicious insult to the U.N. Charter and its member nations that respect justice and peace. If the U.N. intends to act in conformity with its Charter it should not be used any more by the U.S. imperialists for their criminal purpose, all the "resolutions" on the "Korean question" illegally adopted so far should be cancelled and the "UNCURK" dissolved.

Intensification of Planned Guidance of National Economy Is Momentous Guarantee for Uninterrupted Growth of Production at High Tempo

To enhance the economy-organizing functions of the socialist state and to strengthen the planned guidance of the national economy are one of the most important problems arising in the discharge of the historical mission of proletarian dictatorship by the Party and the state of the working class, and one of the cardinal conditions for ensuring successful socialist and communist construction.

In his recent brilliant works "On Some Theoretical Problems of the Socialist Economy" Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Marxist-Leninist and the respected and beloved Leader of the 40 million Korean people, expounded a new law that the socialist economy develops incessantly at a high tempo and gave a profound Marxist-Leninist elucidation to the necessity of enhancing the economy-organizing functions of the state of proletarian dictatorship, particularly of intensifying its planned guidance of the national economy and to its significance.

In the works Comrade Kim Il Sung taught that the planned and proportionate development of the national economy in socialist society provides the objective possibility for incessantly developing production at a high rate and that the indispensable condition for translating such a possibility into reality is to enhance the economy-organizing functions of the state of proletarian dictatorship and intensify its planned guidance of the national economy.

The thought of Comrade Kim Il Sung on attaining an ever high rate of the growth of production by intensifying the planned guidance of the national economy is based, above all, on a scientific calculation of the objective possibility the socialist system opens up to incessantly developing production at a high rate through the planned and proportionate growth of the national economy.

Comrade Kim Il Sung taught as follows:

"A high rate of economic growth is the rule in socialist society, and the planned and proportionate development of the national economy is a prerequisite for it....

"The high rate of socialist construction in our country has been made possible on the basis of a planned and proportionate development of the national economy. Because of this the high rate of development could be firmly maintained and all-round socialist construction further accelerated throughout the Five-Year Plan period, to say nothing of the postwar rehabilitation period." (Kim Il Sung's Selected Works, Vol. 3, p. 99.)

The high rate of economic growth in socialist society is the indispensable requirement of socialist and communist construction and the basic law of the socialist economy, and the possibility for meeting this requirement is provided mainly by the planned and proportionate development of the national economy.

The planned and proportionate development of the national economy thoroughly ensures the planning and balancing of economic development and makes it possible for the socialist economic system to display the unchallenged superiority over the capitalist economy marked by competition and anarchy of production.

The especially important thing in the thought of Comrade Kim Il Sung that the socialist economic system characterized by the planned development of the national economy provides the objective possibilities for developing production at an ever high rate, is that the further socialist construction advances, the greater become these possibilities.

Comrade Kim Il Sung taught:

"Socialist society has unlimited potentialities to incessantly develop the economy at such a high rate as is inconceivable in capitalist society, and the further socialist construction advances and the stronger the economic basis grows, the greater become these potentialities." ("On Some Theoretical Problems of the Socialist Economy," English ed., p. 2.)

As socialist economic construction develops in depth, productive ties between enterprises and between branches of the national economy become still more varied and complex. Accordingly, the planned guidance and management of socialist economy aimed at organizing and directing social production, pose as a more complicated and difficult problem. But the consolidation and development of socialist relations of production and the strengthening of the country's economic basis makes the law of the planned and proportionate development of the national economy operate more comprehensively in all branches of the national economy and offers the objective conditions for more fully meeting the requirements of this law. These objective conditions render it favourable to solve more successfully the question of the planned guidance and management of the socialist economy.

The more comprehensive and perfect operation of the law of the planned and proportionate development of the national economy makes it possible to precisely establish all equilibriums, detailed and comprehensive, in the economic development, and, accordingly, increases the possibility for achieving a high rate of economic development. This also renders it possible to control co-ordinately all manpower and material resources of the country and make more effective use of them for the interests of the national economy as a whole and thus increase the potentialities for economization of social labour and for the growth of production.

As socialist construction advances and the economic basis grows stronger, the technical equipment of the national economy further improves, which increases the possibility for exploring and using better the natural resources of the country and saving more social labour. The consolidation of the economic basis develops division of labour and co-operative production. By organizing them in a planned way the socialist state further increases the reserves and potentialities of economic growth.

All this shows that the further socialist construction advances, the fuller play is given to the superiority of the socialist planned economy and, accordingly, it is an objective law that the potentialities incessantly augment to uninterruptedly develop production at a high rate in socialist society.

The thought of Comrade Kim Il Sung that elucidated such an objective law of the development of the socialist economy is the Marxist-Leninist idea which dealt a resolute blow at the "theory" of modern revisionists who deny the superiority of the socialist planned economy instead of making efforts to give full play to it as socialist and communist construction progresses and at the assertion of the "Left" opportunists that the socialist economy always develops unproportionately.

Comrade Kim Il Sung clarified correctly the socio-economic conditions, objective conditions which ensure an ever high tempo of the development of the socialist economy, taught that the enhanced economy-organizing functions of the state of proletarian dictatorship, its intensified planned guidance of the national economy in particular, is of fundamental significance in giving full play to all factors ensuring the uninterrupted high tempo of the socialist extended reproduction, and elucidated comprehensively problems of principle regarding this.

Comrade Kim Il Sung instructed:

"...In socialist society all the labour resources and natural wealth of the country can be most reasonably made use of, and production can be incessantly raised according to plan. This possibility of production growth will ever increase according as the equilibrium among the branches of the national economy is rationally preserved and the country's economy is kept in better shape with the strengthening of the economy-organizing functions of the state of the proletarian dictatorship and the rise of the level of economic management of the functionaries." ("On Some Theoretical Problems of the Socialist Economy," English ed., pp. 2-3.)

This teaching of Comrade Kim Il Sung makes it clear that the enhancement of the economy-organizing functions of the state of proletarian dictatorship is the indispensable condition for augmenting the possibility to ensure a steady high rate of production growth in socialist society and for turning it into reality.

The enhancement of the economy-organizing functions of the socialist state and the improvement of the planned guidance to the national economy are a powerful weapon of mobilizing the objective and subjective factors in socialist extended reproduction and, accordingly, they are important guarantee for attaining an incessant high rate of production growth.

Important factors ensuring an incessant high tempo of production growth in socialist society are:

First, to correctly establish equilibrium in the economic development;

Second, to secure ample, necessary accumulation corresponding to the expanded economic scale of the country;

Third, to incessantly raise labour productivity by bringing into full play the revolutionary zeal of the working masses and actively promoting technical revolution.

Needless to say, such factors in uninterruptedly developing socialist economy at a high rate are objectively ensured by the socialist economic system which is based on socialist ownership of means of production. But they can effectively work only when the economy-organizing functions of the socialist state are raised and its planned guidance of the national economy improved.

The balance of the national economy is of very great significance generally in successfully pushing ahead with socialist economic construction and specifically in strengthening the planned guidance of the national economy to achieve the high tempo of the development of the socialist economy.

As Comrade Kim Il Sung taught, the planned development of the economy means, above all, to maintain a proper balance among various branches of the national economy, and the maintenance of equilibrium is the cardinal thing in planning.

Comrade Kim Il Sung, the outstanding Marxist-Leninist and the respected and beloved Leader, put forth an original thought on the corelations between the rate and proportion in socialist economic development and on the principles and ways for solving the question of maintaining proportion while keeping up a steady high rate of economic development, and thus gave an all-round perfect, scientific exposition to the problem of balance arising in achieving a high rate of socialist economic development.

Comrade Kim Il Sung taught:

"However high the rate of economic development may be, there will be no disproportion as long as the rate is based strictly on actual possibilities. Of course, it is very difficult to maintain proportion while keeping up a very high rate. But, this rate should not be slackened to maintain a balance. Planning and balancing are not ends in themselves; they are a means for achieving a high rate of development. Hence, it is most important of all to rely on the advantages of the socialist system and the creative power of the masses and mobilize to the maximum the latent reserves and potentialities of the national economy so that all branches can be simultaneously developed at a high rate." (Kim Il Sung's Selected Works, Vol. 3, p. 99.)

This teaching of Comrade Kim Il Sung is a classic proposition which made an outstanding contribution to further developing and enriching the theory on socialist planning by giving an all-round elucidation to the corelations between the rate and balance and the requirements of principle arising in properly establishing the corelations.

This proposition of Comrade Kim Il Sung clarifies the original idea that the main thing in the rate and proportion of economic development is the former and the latter is a means for achieving the former and that the proportion should serve to achieve a high rate. It also expounds the great significance which the maintenance of objectivity of proportion and the establishment of an active proportion have in achieving a high rate of economic development.

Active proportion means the equilibrium for continuous innovation and uninterrupted advance which is aimed at achieving a high rate of economic development and a balance which is established in conformity with not the lagging link of the national economy but the most advanced and leading link and it also means a balance which relies on the revolutionary zeal and creative activeness of working masses and is established on the basis of the envisaging of the active introduction of advanced science and technique and the effective use of all resources.

Such an active proportion provides important conditions for firmly securing the proportionate development of the national economy and achieving an incessant high rate of economic development by mobilizing and utilizing to the maximum the reserves and possibility for production development.

Comrade Kim Il Sung taught that the important thing in establishing the proportion to achieve an ever high rate of socialist economic development is to properly secure the comprehensive equilibrium of the national economy and, at the same time, to establish a concrete proportion down to the details.

Comrade Kim Il Sung taught:

"...Our plan of the national economy must properly secure the equilibrium of the national economy as a whole in accordance with the Party's policy and objective realities and it must be concrete and detailed one that well co-ordinates all branches and enterprises down to details." (Kim Il Sung's Selected Works, Vol. 4, p. 263.)

The comprehensive balance of the national economy is of great significance in the planned and proportionate development of the socialist economy. But, without basing itself upon the equilibriums which co-ordinate all factors in extended reproduction down to details, it cannot fully play its role.

Only when the detailed proportion is precisely secured as a whole, it can ensure the comprehensive balance practically and firmly and all the resources of the country can be more effectively used so that a steady high rate of economic development may be achieved.

The original thought of Comrade Kim Il Sung on the corelations between the rate and proportion and on principles and ways of establishing equilibrium is an outstanding idea that defines the Marxist-Leninist principles for the scientific solution of the problem of proportion that makes it possible to achieve an incessant high growth rate of socialist production. And it is a creative idea that shows a new road to the development of the Marxist-Leninist theory on planning.

Comrade Kim Il Sung attached great importance to the correct solution of the problems of equilibrium and accumulation in achieving an incessant high rate of economic development in socialist society.

The constant expansion of the scale of the socialist economy indispensably demands the corresponding growth of accumulation. Expanding the scale of the economy means the growth in the social gross output value and the enlargement of the country's economic basis and the fixed assets of the national economy. Therefore, the expansion of the scale of the economy requires more investment in capital construction and more circulating assests necessary for extended reproduction.

Comrade Kim Il Sung taught:

"Since the socialist state controls co-ordinately and realizes production and distribution, accumulation and consumption according to plan, it can allocate a large amount of funds to accumulation and carry on socialist extended reproduction steadily on a big scale by using the funds most reasonably." ("On Some Theoretical Problems of the Socialist Economy," English ed., p. 3.)

In this teaching Comrade Kim Il Sung offered a scientific conclusion that when the socialist state establishes reasonably the equilibrium of the national economy and gives a correct

S. KOREAN STUDENTS' STRUGGLE AGAINST FASCISTIZATION AND FOR DEMOCRATIZATION SPREADS WIDELY

The just struggle of the South Korean college and high school students started in Seoul for shattering the U.S. imperialist-manipulated vicious long-term "office" scheme of the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique and their fascist rule and for winning democratic freedom and rights has now extended over the length and breadth of South Korea—Riri, Pusan, Mokpo, Taegu, Andong, Masan, Taejon and other areas.

"WE DEMAND DEMOCRATIC RIGHTS!"

Students Stage Demonstration, Hunger Strike and Stay-in Braving Enemy's Brutal Repression

According to press reports from South Korea more than 300 students of the Engineering College under Chonbuk University in Riri, North Cholla Province, gathered for a protest meeting and staged stay-in on July 7, at which they condemned the vicious manoeuvres of the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique. Following the meeting the students surged out into the streets arms in arms and staged a demonstration shouting the slogans: "Ensure freedom of speech!" "We demand democratic rights!" and so on. They marched through the streets breaking through police cordon with their united strength.

On the same day, more than 400 students of the Wongwang College near Riri held a protest meeting and staged a demonstration.

After unfolding a hot fight with the puppet policemen who came to break up their demonstration they returned to the school and staged stay-in.

About 400 students of the Medical College under Pusan University held a meeting in denunciation of the sinister plot of the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique to "remain in power" for a long time, adopted a decision reflecting their determination to fight until their demand was met and called a hunger strike.

And according to other reports, over 600 students of the Mokpo College of Education, South Cholla Province, had on July 7 an indignation meeting against the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique's long-term "office" intrigue and resolved to rise in the just struggle.

The students of the Hanguk Social Work College in Taegu, North Kyongsang Province, held on June 27 a denunciation meeting exposing the crimes of the puppet Pak Jung Hi clique, faithful dogs of U.S. imperialism, who are on the rampage to step up fascist terror campaign against students, said a press report from South Korea.

At the meeting hall there was a slogan-bearing placard reading: "We're opposed to school inspection!" They shouted repeatedly the slogans: "Retract the proposed constitutional revision for the third election at once!", "Stop school inspection!" and so on.

A declaration was read at the meeting.

In the declaration the students solemnly declared that they would shatter the criminal machinations of the puppet Pak Jung Hi clique and "are all ready to wage a sanguinary battle with any anti-democratic forces until the freedom of school is ensured."

An appeal addressed to the entire college students of South Korea at the meeting said:

"Let's rise up resolutely and smash the proposed constitutional revision for the third election going against the cost of blood shed by the seniors!"

"WE OPPOSE FASCISTIZATION!"

More and More High School Students in Various Parts Join the Struggle

According to a news dispatch from South Korea, more and more high school students are rolling over to the just struggle of college students waged under the banner of anti-fascism and democratization.

On July 11, more than 1,000 students of the Andong High School in North Kyongsang Province staged a street demonstration arms in arms to smash the sinister intrigue of the Pak Jung Hi military ruffians, shouting aloud the slogans: "We oppose fascistization!" "Ensure democratic rights!" and so on and valorously fought with the puppet policemen.

On the same day, over 1,000 students of the Kyesong High School in Taegu held a similar meeting and staged a street demonstration with a firm resolve to fight to the last man.

Prior to this, on July 10 the students of the Tongrae High School in Pusan had a "meeting opposing the constitutional revision for the third election" at the school campus and held a demonstration.

The students of the Taejin and Taegu High Schools in Taegu held on July 10 denunciation meetings to smash the long-term "office" scheme of the puppet Pak Jung Hi clique and staged demonstrations fighting fiercely with the puppet policemen who came to break up their demonstration.

On July 9, students of the Kyongbuk High School in Taegu, the Masan High School and Masan High Commercial School in Masan of South Kyongsang Province, the Taejon High School and Jungdo High Industrial School in Taejon of South Chungchong Province also rose in the just struggle.

planned guidance to it, it can successfully secure accumulation necessary for the expansion of the economic scale, however big the scale of economy may grow.

This idea of Comrade Kim Il Sung is an original thought on the economy that newly developed the theory on socialist extended reproduction.

This original thought of Comrade Kim Il Sung on the settlement of the accumulation problem for achieving an incessant high rate of socialist extended reproduction is based on a scientific conclusion that the enlarging of the economic scale in socialist society demands the growth of accumulation and, at the same time, makes it possible to create constantly the sources of accumulation on a wider scale.

This thought of Comrade Kim Il Sung is founded on the fact that if the socialist state strengthens its planned guidance of the national economy and establishes properly equilibrium between accumulation and consumption, it can allocate much funds to accumulation for extended reproduction while securing a rapid improvement of the people's livelihood. It is also based on a deep understanding of great significance which the most reasonable utilization of the created accumulation has.

All this testifies to the fact that the further the economic basis of socialism is expanded and consolidated and the higher the level of the planned guidance and management of the national economy rises, the larger the scale of accumulation grows and that there is an unlimited possibility for incessantly developing the socialist economy as fast as possible by effectively utilizing the enlarged accumulation.

The constant growth of social labour productivity is one of the factors which are of decisive significance in attaining an incessant high rate of socialist extended reproduction.

Since social reproduction is, in the final analysis, carried on by the productive activity of working masses who directly create social wealth, the most important thing in realizing socialist extended reproduction is how to organize social labour and how to increase labour productivity.

It is a law-governed process that the socialist economy develops on the basis of the high ideological consciousness of socialist working people and the constant development of science and technology.

As Comrade Kim Il Sung taught, in socialist society the increase of labour productivity is attained by such factors as technical development, enhancement of the technical level and skill of working people, improvement of organization of labour and production and heightening of ideological consciousness of working people.

Unlike capitalist society in which the development of technology suffers serious contradiction and restriction, in socialist society the development of technique renders human labour easy and economizes social labour and so new technique is widely introduced in every branch.

Firmly relying on such an advantage of the socialist economic system, the socialist state organizes and plans the technical development and popularizes rapidly successes attained in the scientific and technical development in all branches of the national economy, thereby incessantly developing technique.

The bigger the scale of the national economy grows and the more complex and varied the productive ties between branches become, the greater significance the rationalization and improvement of organization of social production and labour have in raising labour productivity. This constitutes a reserve for increasing labour productivity. Whether this reserve is well tapped or not greatly depends on the level of the planned management by the socialist state.

In socialist society the high revolutionary zeal of working people, as an internal factor in achieving a high rate of socialist extended reproduction, is a most powerful driving force making it possible to incessantly develop the socialist economy at a high rate, and is of decisive significance in increasing labour productivity.

The lofty ideological consciousness of the working people who work devotedly for the socialist fatherland and people enhances their labour enthusiasm in production activity and powerfully promotes the technical development and the constant improvement of organization of production and labour.

The establishment of a revolutionary economic management system perfectly accordant with the nature of the socialist system, that is, the establishment of the Daean work system, a new economic management system, whose cardinal requirement is to mobilize the voluntary zeal of the working people by giving priority to political work in all activities, rendered it possible to radically improve the planned guidance of the national economy and especially to give full play to the revolutionary enthusiasm and creative activeness of the working people in the management of production and the economy so as to increase labour productivity and develop the socialist economy incessantly at a high rate.

As is seen above, to enhance the economy-organizing functions of the state of proletarian dictatorship and the level of the planned management of the national economy is a powerful force and a strong means in enlisting and using all the factors capable of increasing incessantly socialist production at a high rate.

For its Marxist-Leninist principle and scientific value the thought of Comrade Kim Il Sung on achieving an ever high rate of the production growth by strengthening the planned guidance of the national economy is a powerful weapon for thoroughly exposing and crushing various hues of "Left" and Right opportunist view manifested in this field.

The representative of men of culture recited a poem in memory of Comrade Kim Jong Tae.

That day the public organizations of our country sent letters of condolence to the South Korean revolutionaries and patriots and the bereaved family of Comrade Kim Jong Tae.

A solemn memorial service of women for the late Comrade Kim Jong Tae, indomitable revolutionary fighter, took place at the Moranbong Theatre in Pyongyang on July 17. There were provincial, city, district and county memorial services for the late Comrade Kim Jong Tae. Solemn memorial services were also held at factories, enterprises, co-op farms, and educational, cultural, scientific, public health and press organs throughout the country.

On July 12, the Cabinet of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea decided to rename the Pyongyang Electric Locomotive Factory and the Haeju Normal College the Kim Jong Tae Electric Locomotive Factory and the Kim Jong Tae Normal College to transmit for ever the revolutionary exploits of the late Comrade Kim Jong Tae, an indomitable revolutionary fighter,

We Will Settle without Fail Old Scores with U.S. Imperialist Aggressors, Our Inveterate Enemy, and Their Lackeys

Meetings Held in Denunciation of the U.S. Imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi Clique Who Murdered Indomitable Revolutionary Fighter Comrade Kim Jong Tae

On July 16 at the open air theatre in the Moranbong Youth Park a grand Pyongyang city meeting was held in denunciation of the U.S. imperialists, the inveterate enemy, and the Pak Jung Hi fascist band who murdered the indomitable revolutionary fighter Comrade Kim Jong Tae.

On the platform was respectfully placed a portrait of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader of the 40 million Korean people, against two national flags of the Republic.

The meeting place was packed with more than 20,000 working people in the city, "a-match-for-a-hundred" servicemen and Worker-Peasant Red Militiamen, youths and students, who were firmly resolved to have the price of the blood shed by Comrade Kim Jong Tae, a proud son of our fatherland and a revolutionary fighter loyal to the Leader, paid thousand upon thousand times.

The thunderous, angry shouts burst forth again and again "Let's force the U.S. imperialist aggressors out of South Korea and unify the country!" "We sternly condemn the fascist repression by the U.S. imperialists and puppet Pak Jung Hi clique who murdered Kim Jong Tae and other patriots in South Korea!" and "We actively support and encourage the anti-U.S. national-salvation struggle of the South Korean people!"

Present at the meeting were Comrades Pak Sung Chul, Pak Jong Ae and Choi Yong Jin and responsible functionaries of the Party and government organs and public organizations.

Also present there were the representatives of the United Revolutionary Party.

At the meeting Chairman Jon Chang Chol of the Central Committee of the General Federation of Trade Unions of Korea spoke first.

The entire Korean people, he said, sincerely mourning for Comrade Kim Jong Tae who devoted his whole life to the revolution along the road indicated by Comrade Kim Il Sung, are burning with hatred and revengeful thought against the U.S. imperialists and the puppet Pak Jung Hi clique who brutally killed him and filled with a firm resolution to accomplish without fail the revolutionary cause Comrade Kim Jong Tae left unfinished.

He noted that, startled by the ever mounting struggle of the masses of people in South Korea against their war policy and fascistization policy, the U.S. imperialists and their lackeys are running wild to check the revolutionary advance of the masses of people and save their ruling system from its crisis by killing Chairman Kim Jong Tae of the Seoul City Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, a powerful underground revolutionary organization in South Korea, and that they are cruelly repressing the anti-fascistization, democratization struggle of the South Korean youth and students.

With no brutal suppression, he warned, can the American imperialist aggressors and the puppet Pak Jung Hi band escape from their ruin.

Invincible is the revolutionary cause of our people who are enjoying the wise guidance of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of the 40 million Korean people, peerless patriot, national hero, ever-victorious iron-willed brilliant commander and one of the outstanding leaders of the international communist and working-class movements, he emphasized.

A representative of the United Revolutionary Party took the floor next.

The fiendish murder of Comrade Kim Jong Tae by the enemies, he said, has invited a storm of indignation and denunciation of the entire Korean people and the honest-minded peoples of all countries in Asia, Africa and Latin America, and they cannot escape from the stern judgement of the people and ruin for their atrocious crime.

The colonial fascist rule of the American imperialists and the puppet Pak Jung Hi gangsters is on the verge of collapse and the grudge and complaint of the people against the ruling circles have grown as never before, he stressed.

The revolutionary situation in South Korea, he pointed out, is maturing among workers, peasants, and youth and students and intellectuals and South Korea is now turning into a powder magazine of revolution to blow up with a tremendous explosion.

The representative of the United Revolutionary Party stated:

How can we revolutionaries of South Korea, revolutionary fighters of the great Leader Comrade Kim Il Sung, stop even a moment the struggle remaining indifferent to the misfortune of parents and brothers trampled underfoot by the U.S. imperialist aggressors and to the tragedy of the national division. We will fight on to the end to surely translate into reality the aspiration of the South Korean people to lead a happy life under the leadership of Comrade Kim Il Sung in a unified country.

The representatives of workers, agricultural working people and youth and students also addressed the meeting.

The representative of men in the field of culture read a statement of denunciation.

Pyongyang city mass meeting denouncing the murder of Comrade Kim Jong Tae by the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi clique

We Once Again Indict before Whole World Criminal Barbarity of Murder Committed by U.S. Imperialists and Pak Jung Hi Fascist Gang

Korean Public Organizations Send a Joint Letter to International Democratic Organizations and Democratic Public Organizations of All Lands of World, Denouncing Criminal Barbarity of U.S. Imperialists and Pak Jung Hi Puppet Clique, Traitors for All Ages, Who Murdered Comrade Kim Jong Tae, Chairman of Seoul City Committee of United Revolutionary Party

Public organizations of our country sent a joint letter to the international democratic organizations and democratic public organizations of the whole world on July 17 exposing and denouncing the criminal act unpardonable down through generations committed by the U.S. imperialist aggressors and the Pak Jung Hi fascist gang, their stooges, in murdering at last Comrade Kim Jong Tae, Chairman of the Seoul City Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, who was an ardent patriot, indomitable revolutionary fighter and winner of "International Prize of Journalist," defying the strong protest and denunciation by the Korean people and the people throughout the world. The joint letter reads:

International democratic organizations and democratic public organizations of the whole world struggling for the freedom and liberation of the people and democratic development of society!

The southern half of our fatherland today is the scene of a fierce fight between revolution and counter-revolution and between patriotism and treachery and there the U.S. imperialist aggressors and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique are becoming all the more wanton as the days roll on in their bestial barbarities of murder against the revolutionaries and patriots struggling for freedom and liberation and the independent unification of the country.

The U.S. imperialists who are occupying South Korea by force of arms and imposing a ruthless colonial fascist rule upon it, and the Pak Jung Hi gang committed on July 10 a heinous barbarity unpardonable down through generations by murdering at last Comrade Kim Jong Tae, Chairman of the Seoul City Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, who was an ardent patriot, indomitable revolutionary fighter and winner of "International Prize of Journalist," defying the powerful protest and denunciation by the entire Korean people and people the world over.

The U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi murderous gang perpetrated such brutal barbarity provoking the wrath of all humanity, while becoming increasingly frenzied in their manoeuvres for unleashing a new war of aggression, at a time when the flames of the anti-U.S. national-salvation struggle are raging furiously in South Korea. This is one more vicious challenge to the entire Korean people and world people.

Thus the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi fascist gang once again revealed before the whole world their ugly colours as the most ferocious and vicious fascist hangmen and most heinous and dastardly murderous gang.

Now the entire Korean people are sternly denouncing with surging national indignation the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi murderous gang who killed in cold blood Comrade Kim Jong Tae, an indomitable revolutionary fighter, and their hearts are aflame with the determination to take a hundred-fold, thousand-fold revenge upon the beasts.

Conveying to the international democratic organizations, the democratic public organizations of all countries of the world and the world people the grievous news that Comrade Kim Jong Tae, an indomitable revolutionary fighter who had dedicated his whole life to the struggle for freedom and liberation and the independent unification of the country, was brutally murdered by the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi murderous gang, we once again indict before the whole world the criminal barbarity of murder committed by the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi fascist gang.

As widely known already, Comrade Kim Jong Tae was a faithful soldier of the great Leader and a true son of our fatherland who fought, dedicating his whole life, to embody in South Korea the revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader of the 40 million Korean people.

Comrade Kim Jong Tae fought against the Japanese imperialist colonial slave education when our country was downtrodden under the colonial rule of the Japanese imperialists and fought undauntedly against the U.S. imperialists' occupation of South Korea and their colonial fascist rule from the first days following the country's liberation on August 15, 1945.

Comrade Kim Jong Tae was an indomitable revolutionary fighter who brightly lit the path of struggle before the masses of the South Korean people groping in darkness, by disseminating among them the great revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the brilliant Leader of the Korean revolution, and when the masses of the people demanded a general staff of the South Korean revolution, formed, together with his revolutionary comrades-in-arms, the United Revolutionary Party, a powerful underground revolutionary organization guided by the revolutionary ideas of the Leader and struggled with all devotion to overthrow the U.S. imperialists' colonial fascist rule and liberate the South Korean people groaning under exploitation and oppression.

And he was an ardent patriot who fought, forgetting sleep and rest, against the policies of war and fascistization of the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique in South Korea and for winning democratic freedom and rights, bringing to an end the tragedies of territorial division and national split and achieving the peaceful unification of the country.

The revolutionary activity of Comrade Kim Jong Tae was a link in the righteous anti-imperial-

Struggle of Korean People for Country's Unification Is Part of World People's Struggle for Liberation, Progress and Security

Various Countries Express Powerful Support to the Just Struggle of the Korean People on the Occasion of the "Month of Anti-U.S. Joint Struggle for the Withdrawal of the U.S. Imperialist Aggression Army from South Korea"

Various countries keep extending powerful support and encouragement to the just struggle of the Korean people for withdrawing the U.S. imperialist aggressor troops from South Korea and achieving the independent, peaceful unification of the country, on the occasion of the "month of anti-U.S. joint struggle for the withdrawal of the U.S. imperialist aggression army from South Korea."

Statement of Permanent Secretariat of the Latin American University Students' Organization

The Permanent Secretariat of the Latin American University Students' Organization issued a statement on July 9.

The statement pointed out:

Korea is not yet unified owing to the occupation of South Korea by the U.S. imperialists. The 20-odd-year-long brutal colonial rule of the U.S. imperialists has brought untold sufferings to the South Korean people. South Korea has been converted into a colony of the U.S. imperialists and their base for aggression where terror and massacre prevail. The U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique are perpetrating without hesitation the desperate outrages of arresting and imprisoning at random the South Korean revolutionaries and patriots and students who are demanding democratic rights and the unification of the country.

The statement branded the U.S. imperialists as the most atrocious human butchers of the 20th century and the inveterate enemy of the Korean people and their jackal Pak Jung Hi clique as arch traitors who sell the country and the nation and fascist hangmen who suppress and kill at random revolutionaries and people.

Though the American imperialists and their stooges could destroy Comrade Kim Jong Tae, they can neither check the strengthening and development of the United Revolutionary Party he and his comrades built shedding their blood, nor prevent hundred upon hundred revolutionaries from joining the revolutionary ranks following him, the statement stressed.

Presenting respect to the members of the United Revolutionary Party and other South Korean revolutionaries who are advancing in high spirits along the road to victory indicated by the great Leader Comrade Kim Il Sung getting over trying ordeals of the revolution, the statement extended enthusiastic support and encouragement to the South Korean students who have put up again a resistance struggle braving the fascist repression by the enemy.

On July 17 at the Chollima Hall of Culture a meeting of men of the press in Pyongyang was held in denunciation of the American imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi clique who murdered Comrade Kim Jong Tae, an indomitable revolutionary fighter, prominent journalist and winner of "International Prize of Journalist."

No matter how wild the U.S. imperialists may run to check the revolutionary struggle of the South Korean people, it will only accelerate their own doom.

The Latin American University Students' Organization extends positive support and encouragement to the struggle of the Korean people for smashing the military provocations of the U.S. imperialists and driving the U.S. imperialist aggressors out of South Korea.

In SYRIA

A mass rally was held on June 25 in Damascus on the occasion of the "month of anti-U.S. joint struggle for the withdrawal of the U.S. imperialist aggression army from South Korea."

The rally was attended by Gaji Nassif, Chairman of the General Federation of Syrian Workers' Trade Unions, the members of the Executive Committee, and other cadres, of the General Federation and a large number of working people.

Osman Abu, member of the Executive Committee of the General Federation of Syrian Workers' Trade Unions, made a speech at the rally. He stressed:

The U.S. imperialists ignited an aggressive war against the Korean people 19 years ago. But the entire Korean people rose up as one man and defended the Democratic People's Republic of Korea against the encroachment of the enemies through an arduous struggle under the leadership of Premier Kim Il Sung. The struggle of the Korean people for the unification of the country is part of the struggle of the peoples of the whole world for liberation, progress and security and their struggle is a grand struggle against world imperialism which is plundering the peoples of their wealth and is trying to enslave them in the Far East and everywhere in the world.

He pointed out:

In the past, the Korean people waged the sacred struggle for attaining the unification of the country under the leadership of Comrade Kim Il Sung and are now also struggling for the attainment of the great goal of unification. The unification of Korea, Vietnam and Arab can be achieved only through struggle.

In the CONGO (B)

A meeting was held recently in Brazzaville, the capital of the Congo (B), for opening the month of solidarity supporting the struggle of the Korean people against the U.S. imperialists, under the sponsorship of the League for Friendship among the People in the Congo (B).

Respectfully placed on the background of the platform was a portrait of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader of the 40 million Korean people.

Bella Vital, President of the League for Friendship among the People in the Congo (B) made a speech at the meeting.

He emphasized that the U.S. imperialist aggressors unleashed an aggressive war against the Korean people 19 years ago, but the Korean people won a victory under the leadership of Premier Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader of the 40 million Korean people and the outstanding military strategist.

He referred to the fact that the U.S. imperialists are recently running ever more frenziedly to provoke a new aggressive war and underscored that the Korean people under the leadership of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of the revolution, will always win victories.

In conclusion he shouted aloud "Long live Premier Kim Il Sung!" and chanted in a vigorous tone the slogan "U.S. imperialists, get out of South Korea!"

Meanwhile, a photo exhibition of our country opened in the Brazzaville gymnasium.

In SOUTHERN YEMEN

A message supporting the struggle of the Korean people was issued in the joint name of the General Federation of Trade Unions, the League of Students, the Women's Federation and the Federation of Public People's Organisations of the People's Republic of Southern Yemen.

The message pointed out as follows:

We support the measures that the Government of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea and its people led by Comrade Kim Il Sung take against the U.S. imperialists' aggressive and provocative manoeuvres, and express solidarity with them. At the same time, we condemn the aggressive policy of the U.S. imperialists

We appeal to all the liberation forces and peace forces of the world to express their support to and solidarity with the struggle of the Government of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea and its people against the aggressive machinations and provocations of the U.S. imperialists and their stooges.

ist, anti-U.S. common struggle of the world people against U.S. imperialism, the chieftain of aggression and war and the most truculent common enemy of mankind, and part of the sacred anti-imperialist national-liberation struggle of the exploited and oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America for freedom, liberation and democracy.

Through his whole life, Comrade Kim Jong Tae accomplished lofty fighting exploits which will shine long in the glorious revolutionary history of our country and made a great contribution to the struggle of the world people for the freedom and liberation of the people and for democracy.

The revolutionary struggle for the South Korean revolution and the unification of the fatherland is an entirely righteous patriotic struggle reflecting the unanimous desire and aspiration of the South Korean people to see the 40 million Korean people live in happiness together in a unified and independent fatherland free from exploitation and oppression.

The chaotic situation created in South Korea today leaves the South Korean revolutionaries and people no alternative but to rise in a struggle against the U.S. imperialists and their stooges.

South Korea, a complete colony and aggressive military base of the U.S. imperialists, has been turned into a human hell and land of darkness where the people cannot live any longer the way they live now, owing to the colonial fascist rule of the U.S. imperialists over the last two decades and more.

How can a Korean of conscience, who values the future of the country and nation, remain a passive onlooker to such lamentable situation of South Korea! It was only too natural that Comrade Kim Jong Tae should rise up determinedly in the sacred anti-U.S. national-salvation struggle for overthrowing the U.S. imperialists' colonial rule, the root cause of all the misfortunes and sufferings of the South Korean people, and beating down the Pak Jung Hi fascist gang, the traitors for all ages.

It is clear to everyone that this can never be a "crime," still less an object of punishment.

Therefore, the international democratic organizations, the democratic public organizations of all countries of the world and the world people have sternly denounced the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi fascist gang for brutally repressing and murdering South Korean patriots, expressing firm solidarity with Comrade Kim Jong Tae and other South Korean revolutionaries and people in the anti-U.S. national-salvation struggle and the Executive Committee of the International Organization of Journalists awarded to Comrade Kim Jong Tae honourable "International Prize of Journalist" in high recognition of the exploits performed by him in the anti-U.S. national-salvation struggle.

Nevertheless, the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi fascist gang brutally murdered Comrade Kim Jong Tae by most atrocious method, wielding the notorious "national security law" and "anti-communist law".

However heinous a fascist hangman may be, can he be more ferocious than this murderous gang? The U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi fascist gang are, indeed, murderers and beasts without parallel for all ages and in all places.

These human butchers have committed in South Korea countless crimes indelible forever against the Korean people in the past. Recently alone, the beasts brutally murdered in prison Comrade Choi Yong Do, Chairman of the South Cholla Provincial Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, and arrested and imprisoned large numbers of patriots on charges of involvement in the so-called "case" of the United Revolutionary Party, "case" of the People's Revolutionary Party, "case" of the revolutionary organization in Imja Island, "case" of the South Korean Liberation Strategic Party, "case" of the "operative groups for communizing South Korea" and many other "cases," and are scheming to punish them in groups, putting them to bestial tortures and persecution.

The beasts are resorting to unprecedented barbarity of repression: they fire tear gas shells at random at students who turned out, barehanded, in a demonstration struggle for winning democratic freedom and rights, and rain blows on them with clubs by mobilizing heavily armed puppet police and even spray poison gas from airplanes.

This is nothing but the last-ditch effort of the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi fascist gang to stamp out the growing revolutionary forces in South Korea and maintain their crumbling colonial fascist rule.

Those who should be sternly judged and punished by the people in South Korea are none other than the U.S. imperialist aggressors and the Pak Jung Hi fascist gang.

With no barbarous repression can the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi fascist gang bridge over the crisis of their tottering colonial fascist rule or ever stave off their imminent doom.

The murder of Comrade Kim Jong Tae is now evoking indignation among the entire Korean people and arousing the South Korean people more vigorously in the anti-U.S. national-salvation struggle.

With the determination to take a hundred-fold, a thousand-fold revenge upon the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi fascist gang who murdered Comrade Kim Jong Tae, the South Korean revolutionaries and people are waging a staunch struggle in towns and villages, underground and in mountains and even in prison and "court" to carry to accomplishment the cause of South Korean revolution left unfinished by him.

It is an inevitable law of the development of history that revolution defeats counter-revolution and patriotism judges treachery. No force can turn back the wheel of history.

We firmly believe that the international democratic organizations, the democratic public organizations of all countries of the world and the people throughout the world will express active support to and solidarity with the Korean people in their just cause by denouncing more staunchly the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi fascist gang who murdered Comrade Kim Jong Tae and are brutally repressing and murdering other South Korean revolutionaries and by waging a more vigorous struggle for the unconditional and immediate release of all the arrested and imprisoned South Korean revolutionaries and patriots and the expulsion of the U.S. imperialist aggressor troops from South Korea.

Always Shoulder to Shoulder with Cuban People!

Opening Ceremony of the "Month of Solidarity with Cuban People" Held

On the Occasion of the 16th Anniv. of the Armed Uprising of the Cuban People

The opening ceremony of the "month of solidarity with the Cuban people" marking the 16th anniversary of the armed uprising of the Cuban people was held on July 15 at the Pyongyang Grand Theatre.

The meeting place was respectfully adorned with portraits of Comrade Kim Il Sung and Comrade Fidel Castro. Put up in the hall was a slogan "Long live the everlasting friendship and solidarity between the peoples of Korea and Cuba!"

Also hanging there were the flags of our country and the Republic of Cuba symbolizing the friendship and solidarity sealed between the two peoples of Korea and Cuba.

Present at the meeting were, together with working people in the city who came with the feelings of friendship towards the Cuban brothers valiantly fighting in the Western Hemisphere outpost of socialism against the U.S. imperialist aggressors, the common enemy, Jon Chang Chol, Chairman of the Central Committee of the General Federation of Trade Unions of Korea; Oh Gi Chon, Chairman of the Central Committee of the League of Socialist Working Youth of Korea; and Hoh Dam, Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs; and other functionaries concerned.

Invited to the meeting were Vivino Garcia Del Pino, Charge d'Affaires ad Interim, and staff members of the Cuban Embassy, and Cuban guests now staying in Pyongyang.

The meeting opened with the playing of the national anthem of Cuba and the Patriotic Song of our country.

Jon Chang Chol, Chairman of the Central Committee of the General Federation of Trade Unions of Korea, spoke at the meeting.

Saying that the entire Korean people are significantly observing the 16th anniversary of the July 26 armed uprising which was an event of great significance in the revolutionary history of the Cuban people, he extended the warmest congratulations and militant greetings to the Cuban brothers who are attaining great successes in the revolution and construction, while firmly defending the Western Hemisphere outpost of socialism, holding aloft the banner of anti-U.S. national-salvation struggle.

He pointed out that after the victory of the revolution, the heroic Cuban people are reliably safeguarding the gains of the revolution won at the cost of their blood, resolutely frustrating the aggressive and subversive machinations by the U.S. imperialists and their stooges, under the correct leadership of the Cuban Communist Party and the Revolutionary Government headed by Fidel Castro, their respected and beloved Leader. Then he referred in detail to the successes the Cuban people have achieved in the fields of agriculture, industry, education, culture and public health.

And he said that the Korean people sincerely rejoice as their own over all the successes scored by the heroic Cuban people and warmly congratulate them on their successes.

The Cuban people who are holding aloft the banner of revolution against imperialism are not only defending and developing the revolution in their country but also powerfully assisting the Latin American peoples in their liberation struggle and making a great contribution to strengthening the world anti-imperialist front through a resolute anti-U.S. struggle, the speaker stressed, and said: The Korean people fully support the anti-imperialist, anti-U.S. struggle of the Cuban people and their revolutionary stand and express firm solidarity with the Latin American peoples in their revolutionary struggle.

The opening ceremony for the "month of solidarity with the Cuban people" held in Pyongyang on the occasion of the 16th anniversary of the armed uprising of the Cuban people

He pointed in detail to the fact that our people under the wise leadership of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of the 40 million Korean people, have converted their country, once a backward colonial, semi-feudal society into an independent socialist state with an advanced socialist system and the firm foundation of an independent national economy, by carrying into effect his great idea of Juche and the revolutionary line of independence, self-sustenance and self-defence, its embodiment.

He exposed and denounced the fact that the U.S. imperialists and their stooges who, scared by the fierce revolutionary struggle of the South Korean people, are stepping up ever more frantically their fascist suppression of the South Korean people.

In conclusion the speaker emphasized that the Korean people who value the friendship and solidarity with the Cuban people, will always march shoulder to shoulder with the Cuban people in the common struggle against U.S. imperialism, the common enemy, and for the victory of the cause of socialism and communism.

Vivino Garcia Del Pino, Charge d'Affaires ad Interim of the Republic of Cuba, spoke next.

He expressed deep thanks for grandly organizing in our country the month of solidarity with the Cuban people, and said:

The Cuban and Korean peoples are fighting against U.S. imperialism, valorously advancing towards the final victory, overcoming all trials, with the firm conviction of victory without the slightest vacillation.

The bonds of militant friendship sealed between the two peoples are being strengthened as the days go by in this course.

As for the Korean people, they are a people who are filled with the revolutionary spirit with which they under the outstanding leadership of Marshal Kim Il Sung waged the anti-Japanese armed struggle from the 1930's and eventually expelled the brutal Japanese colonial exploiters from the sacred territory of their fatherland and a people who are waging a staunch struggle against the U.S. imperialists and their stooges for unifying the country artificially bisected by the U.S. imperialists.

Quoting the words of Comrade Kim Il Sung that "The peoples of all countries making revolution should tear limbs off the U.S. beast and behead it all over the world. The U.S. imperialists appear to be strong, but when the peoples of many countries attack them from all sides and join in mutilating them in that way, they will become impotent and bite the dust in the end," he stressed: We must continue to launch attacks against the monstrous U.S. imperialists in all areas of the world and make them go to decline and ruin.

The meeting adopted a message addressed to Comrade Fidel Castro Ruz, Prime Minister of the Revolutionary Government of the Republic of Cuba.

The meeting closed with the playing of the "Internationale."

We Scathingly Condemn U.S. Imperialists and Fascist Pak Jung Hi Hangmen for Murder of Comrade Kim Jong Tae

Press Conference with Home and Foreign Reporters Held at Foreign Ministry

A press conference with home and foreign reporters was held at the Foreign Ministry on July 12 in connection with the fact that the U.S. imperialist murderers and the Pak Jung Hi fascist hangmen brutally murdered Comrade Kim Jong Tae, an ardent patriot, an indomitable revolutionary fighter, a prominent journalist and Chairman of the Seoul City Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, who fought staunchly for the South Korean revolution and the historical cause of national unification, disregarding the unanimous protest and condemnation of the entire Korean people and the fair-minded people of the whole world.

Present there were home reporters, foreign correspondents staying in our country and press attaches from the embassies of various countries in Pyongyang.

Speaking on the occasion, director of the Information Department of the Foreign Ministry, bitterly denounced the most vicious, brutal murder of Comrade Kim Jong Tae by the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi fascist hangmen as an unpardonable challenge to the entire Korean people and as an unbearable insult to the honest-minded people of the whole world who value justness and truth.

The brutal outrages committed by the U.S. imperialists and their stooges Pak Jung Hi puppet clique against the South Korean revolutionaries and patriots are nothing but a last kick of those on the verge of ruin, he said. With no brutal murderous outrages, however, can the scoundrels strangulate the ever-growing South Korean revolutionary forces or save the crisis of their tottering colonial fascist rule, he emphasized.

Referring to the fact that a struggle for the release of Comrade Kim Jong Tae was unfolded in a world-wide scale, he expressed thanks to the peoples of the socialist countries and national independent states of Asia, Africa and Latin America and many international organizations of the world and organisations engaged in national-liberation struggle and unbiased press circles of the world for their militant solidarity and positive support extended to the just struggle of Comrade Kim Jong Tae and other South Korean revolutionaries and patriots, strongly condemning the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique for their fascist outrages against the South Korean revolutionaries.

He said that as long as the U.S. imperialists keep occupying South Korea, the independent, peaceful unification of our country is unthinkable and the South Korean people cannot be freed from the present miserable plight.

Strongly demanding that the U.S. imperialists quit South Korea without delay, taking with them their aggressor troops and all lethal weapons, he said with emphasis: the people in the northern half of the Republic will support more powerfully the just struggle of the revolutionaries and patriotic people in the southern half and are fully prepared to be mobilized in a decisive struggle for carrying to completion the national-liberation revolution and accomplishing the cause of national unification in concert with the South Korean people at any time when requested by them.
